●●● What's up ?

SALTO YOUTH on line

On behalf of the four SALTO-YOUTH centres, SALTO-NEWS letter would like to introduce the new SALTO web-site, which is available under :

<http://www.salto-youth.net>

Information about SALTO (aim, tasks, news and contact addresses) are available as well as the European Training Calendar.

A database for useful training materials and the reports of former SALTO training courses will soon be available as well as detailed information. The announcements of the new SALTO TCs, which is foreseen for mid November.

As SALTO should be seen as a new tool for the support and development of non-formal European youth-work in the field of training, we would like to ask you to support the development of SALTO and make the information provided on the SALTO web-site accessible for youth workers and trainers in your country, thought forwarding it to your colleagues and to respective youth organisations.

Personal Record of Achievement

The record of Achievement is designed to allow you to be able to provide evidence that you have developed a range of knowledge, skills and understanding as a result of participating in an International Youth Exchange. This folder of evidence, made of different cards, describes six "Base skill" areas and other "Optional skill" areas. In each skill area, one can find learning outcomes and the corresponding evidence of personal development. An essential tool to develop the follow-up of youth exchange and its achievements. Language: English
