Support activities and resources for cooperation with SEE

- Accreditation of EVS promoters in South East Europe
- Training for EVS volunteers in South East Europe
- Training and partner-finding activities and tools for youth leaders and youth workers
- Production and dissemination of resource materials

Cooperation and networking

We closely work together with National Agencies and with the support of networks of trainers and accreditors, in particular in the European Voluntary Service strand of the Programme, as well as Youth in Action Contact Points located in various countries of South East Europe. We also cooperate with other actors in the field of youth and non-formal education in South East Europe.

What is SALTO-YOUTH?

SALTO-YOUTH is a network of eight Resource Centres working on European priority areas in the youth field within the European Union's Youth in Action Programme. It is part of the European Commission's Training Strategy within this Programme.

What is the Youth in Action Programme?

Youth in Action is the Programme the European Union has created for young people. It aims to inspire a sense of active European citizenship, solidarity and tolerance among young Europeans and to involve them in shaping the Union's future. It promotes mobility within and beyond the EU's borders, non-formal learning and intercultural dialogue, and encourages the inclusion of all young people, regardless of their educational, social and cultural background.

Geographic reach of the Programme

Young people can participate in various activities supported by the Programme, such as exchanges, training and networking activities, and the European Voluntary Service.

The EU's neighbouring partner countries (Eastern Europe and Caucasus, and Mediterranean region and other partner countries in the world):

- Albania
- Bosnia and Herzegovina
- Republic of Macedonia
- Montenegro
- Serbia
- and Kosovo

“It is amazing to see a young person grow from looking at himself as an outcast with no positive future to seeing himself as someone who can achieve something meaningful and has a will for further education.”

“Being a European citizen means to be aware and active in our daily lives, not only having a European passport.”

“Making such great friends and sharing their different perspectives has opened a whole new world of possibilities for my personal development and given me the motivation to move on.”
