

ECOCENTRIC 2019

Lovinac, C4CS, Croatia
JULY 2019

From 8th to 24th July 2019. Ecocentric 2019 - volunteer camp gathered 16 volunteers from 6 countries (Spain, Italy, Greece, Germany, Finland and Slovakia). Volunteers were helping at the Centre for Creative Solutions, on a permacultural farm and in the local community, helping the elderly. Thus, volunteers contributed to developing the association and local community, in the same time being enriched with a unique experience of living on a self-sustainable permacultural farm.

Volunteers learned about the sustainable ways of living, green energy and it's efficient usage, recycling, permaculture and organic food growing, healthy vegetarian food and benefits of the above mentioned on the climate, environment and health.

Volunteers helped the small rural community in the work such as cleaning the environment, collecting wood and hay, and on the permacultural farm they did different kinds of work - mulching, weeding, planting, removing pests, helping to build drainage system, making raised bed garden, cleaning the old village paths, making natural detergents, fertilizers, collecting wild plants and berries ...)

Project was implemented in cooperation with partner organizations:
Jugendwerk AWO, Stuttgart, Germany; Hellenic youth participation, Athens, Greece; Almenaras Youth association, Malaga, Spain; ADEL, Bratislava, Slovakia; Metsakartano youth center, Helsinki, Finland, P.E.C.O, Genova, Italy.
