About Project

ITIYW is an international project dedicated to integrating technology into young people's lives, working with partners within the Erasmus+ framework. We strive to empower youth through digital innovation and cross-cultural collaboration.

The ITIYW (Integrating Technology in Youth Work) project combined both international and local activities, creating a dynamic learning ecosystem for young people and professionals. It was implemented with a strong consortium of 9 partners, representing a cross-sectoral collaboration between the higher education sector, business sector, and civil society organizations.

This diverse partnership enabled the project to bridge gaps between academia, industry, and youth-focused NGOs, fostering innovation, mentorship, and digital skill development across multiple countries.

Main Goal

To integrate innovative technology solutions into youth mentoring systems across partner countries.

Increase the access to use of technology in the youth sector by teaching how to use technology more efficiently, hence creating new jobs in tech to reduce youth unemployment and have a positive impact on local economic growth.
