

URGENT CALL FOR A TRAINER

Training Course “Supporting youth creating green start-ups”

When: 16-24 April 2015

Where: “La Rectoral de Valdedios”, Asturias, Spain

Who: Biodiversa (Spain) and Youth and Environment Europe (Czech Republic)

The TC “Supporting youth creating green start-ups” is the first stage of the long-term project “Green Entrepreneurship”. This TC aims to train youth workers and coordinators to support young people in their organisations and communities who want to become entrepreneurs.

The objectives of the TC are:

- To train youth workers' and coordinators' skills so they can support young people who have start-up ideas;
- To explore ways to develop creativity and innovative thinking in youth;
- To discuss the needs and future perspectives of environmentally friendly businesses;
- To explore and develop tools on how to create environmentally friendly start-ups;
- To share ideas on how to encourage and empower young people to develop their green start-up initiatives.

We are looking for one trainer with specific knowledge, skills and experience in the field of entrepreneurship. The trainer will work in a team of 3 trainers. The trainer should be based in one of the Programme Countries (Erasmus+).

Requirements - You are welcome to apply if you have experience with:

- Entrepreneurship initiatives, preferably social and/or “green” initiatives
- Non-formal education and group facilitation
- Running international youth activities
- Working in an intercultural team
- Working and communicating fluently in English

The responsibilities of the trainer will be:

- Join preparatory skype meetings
- Prepare methodology for sessions in advance (session outlines)
- Attend preparatory meeting 1 day before the start of the TC
- Attend the whole duration of the TC
- Hold evaluation with trainers and preparatory team

The compensation will be 1150 EUR. Travel, vegetarian food and accommodation will be covered for all trainers.

If you want to apply, please send an email to Mercedes Fioravanti (mercedes@yeenet.eu) before 26th of February including your CV and a short motivation letter in English. You can be invited for a skype interview.

The selected applicants will be informed by 6th of March 2015.

We are looking forward to hearing from you!
