

NGO Resources – financial, human, personal

18th – 24th March 2018 – Kandersteg, Alps, Switzerland

A training course for manager and trainers of youth NGOs to work on their resources system

DESCRIPTION	"NGO resources" was created to meet concrete needs of NGOs in the youth field: Exploring strategies to establish a financial base that includes funding from the local community; exploring strategies to strengthen human resources through recruiting, motivating and empowering volunteers; exploring strategies to manage personal resources for NGO managers that will enable them to increase productivity simultaneously balanced and healthy lifestyle. The course took place for the first time in November 2012. Due to the high need of NGOs for their structural development, it was further developed and successfully implemented two more times since then.
PARTICIPANTS	30 participants from Switzerland, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Jordan, Montenegro, Netherlands, Palestine, Portugal, Serbia, Spain, Turkey and Ukraine (2 per country)
PROFILE OF PARTICIPANTS	Managers, project leaders, trainers and directors of youth work NGOs that are involved in the development of their organization.
METHODS	Exchange of best practices, non-formal, and interactive working setting: This training course is focusing on exploration of resources in a holistic perspective through group work, individual work and sharing. The course is action-based and will implement the development of a NGO strategy.

Financed by:

TEAM OF TRAINERS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Leilani van der Rheenen, Turkey</li> <li>• Oliver Schneitter, Switzerland</li> </ul> More Information: oschneitter@gmx.ch, +41 76 338 93 51
COSTS	Accommodation and food during the training course will be covered by the training course. Travel costs up to 300 EUR – minus a participation fee of 80 EUR - will be reimbursed after the training course. For EU neighboring countries, the travel costs can be negotiated bilaterally.
INSURANCE AND VISA	All participants are responsible for their travel and health insurance. Participants that need a visa for Switzerland are asked to contact the local Swiss embassy and the hosting organisation of this training course as soon as they got approved as participants.
WORKING LANGUAGE	English (all participants are required to be able to communicate in English)
OBJECTIVES OF THE TRAINING COURSE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To provide the opportunity for organisations to meet and explore general needs of youth NGOs in Europe and its neighboring countries</li> <li>• To explore financial resources possibilities for youth work NGOs on both a local and international level</li> <li>• to explore strategies to increase the capacity of organizations through building their financial, human, and personal resources</li> <li>• To identify personal, professional and educational development opportunities that NGOs can provide for volunteers to ensure their long term cooperation and future employability</li> <li>• To discuss the similarities and differences related to NGO management in relation to the varying realities of the participating countries</li> <li>• To develop strategy plans that enable the participating organisations to reach their goal in terms of resources development in order to provide quality youth work in a regional, national and international level</li> </ul>
INTERESTED?	Then please apply under http://goo.gl/ZLPcck Application deadline: 6th January 2018  Notification of participants: 8th January 2018

TRAINER INFORMATION: LEILANI VAN RHEENEN	Leilani is a multicultural trainer specializing in developing emotional intelligence. Her journey in the NGO world began when she went from Brazil to Turkey as a volunteer, and then was promoted to managing the NGO for the following 8 years. She then branched out to develop herself further as a trainer and coach and worked for the Turkish National Agency as well as various NGOs and companies, eventually establishing her own training and consulting company. To date she has delivered 78 trainings around the world, and currently she is engaged in the Erasmus for Young Entrepreneurs Program from the Netherlands working to develop Emotional Fitness Academy, a comprehensive education system for developing emotional intelligence.
TRAINER INFORMATION: OLIVER SCHNEITTER	Works as a Project Manager in the field of cultural and non-governmental work and as a trainer for a Swiss youth organization where he was responsible for trainings in social work, project management and holistic development, mainly based on outdoor activities. He holds a master degree in Culture Management, Religion Studies and Theology and completed the Youth in Action Training of Trainers. With his own association “Verein Naturkultur” he is developing and running international youth exchange and training courses on outdoor activities, interfaith and intercultural work and personal development.

.