THE ORGANIZATION

PiGreco – SEMI di Intercultura APS is an association resulting from the 2023 merger of SE.M.I. – Seeds for More Interculture APS (funded in 2016) and PiGreco Apprendimento APS (funded in 2017).

It is an amalgamation of educational techniques and intercultural activities. Rooted in Faenza, Italy, our mission is to foster transformative paths for youth and learners of all ages.

PiGreco – SEMI values creativity and inclusion. We promote an intercultural community where young people can explore and experiment, fostering the exchange of ideas and bridging divides. Our educational activities embrace this vision, adapting to diverse learners with personalized approaches.

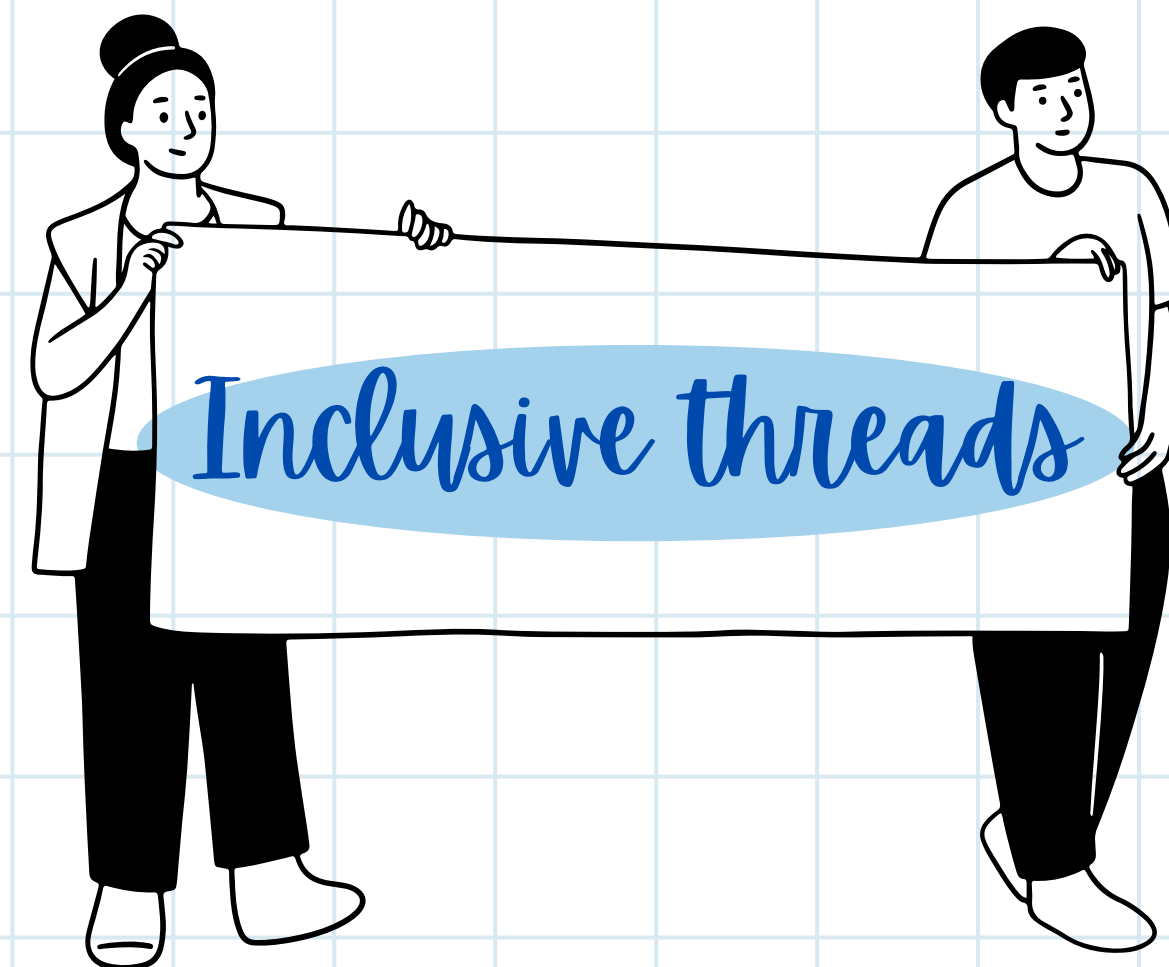

TRAINERS

INA SASNAUSKAITĖ

Hi there! I'm Ina Sasnauskaitė, originally from Lithuania but living in Italy since 2017. With a background in Economics and Management, I coordinate ESC projects and am deeply passionate about the power of volunteering to create positive change. I'm all about sustainability and am always exploring new ways to integrate it into community projects. I believe in connecting people, creating inclusive spaces, and inspiring civic engagement!

PAOLO CURIALE

Hello everyone :). I'm Paolo Curiale, from Sicily but always exploring new cultures and people. I studied industrial engineering, but now I'm focusing on the international relations field. I'm a polyhedric youth worker, my main focus is on Erasmus+ traineeship projects- My aim is to enlarge youngsters' horizons and to create a sense of community among them and the countries we visit.

ABOUT RIMINI

Rimini is a lively city on the Adriatic coast of Italy, famous for its beautiful beaches, rich Roman history, and vibrant cultural life. It is the hometown of the legendary film director Federico Fellini and offers a mix of seaside relaxation, historical landmarks, and Italian hospitality. In November, Rimini is quieter than in summer, creating the perfect atmosphere to focus on learning while still enjoying walks by the sea.

TRAVEL

The closest airports are: Rimini, Bologna, Forlì, and Pisa.

It is also possible to fly to Milan or Rome and then continue by train. Once you arrive in Italy, you need to get to Rimini. There are many train connections available – check schedules at Trenitalia.

From Rimini train station you have two options:

By bus (recommended): Take Bus No. 4 from the station exit and get off at “P.te Marecchia”. From there, walk towards the bridge, follow the sidewalk along the river, and take the stairs immediately on the right. This will lead you down to the street under the bridge, where the hotel is located (less than 2 minutes on foot).

On foot: You can also walk from the train station, which takes about 25 minutes.

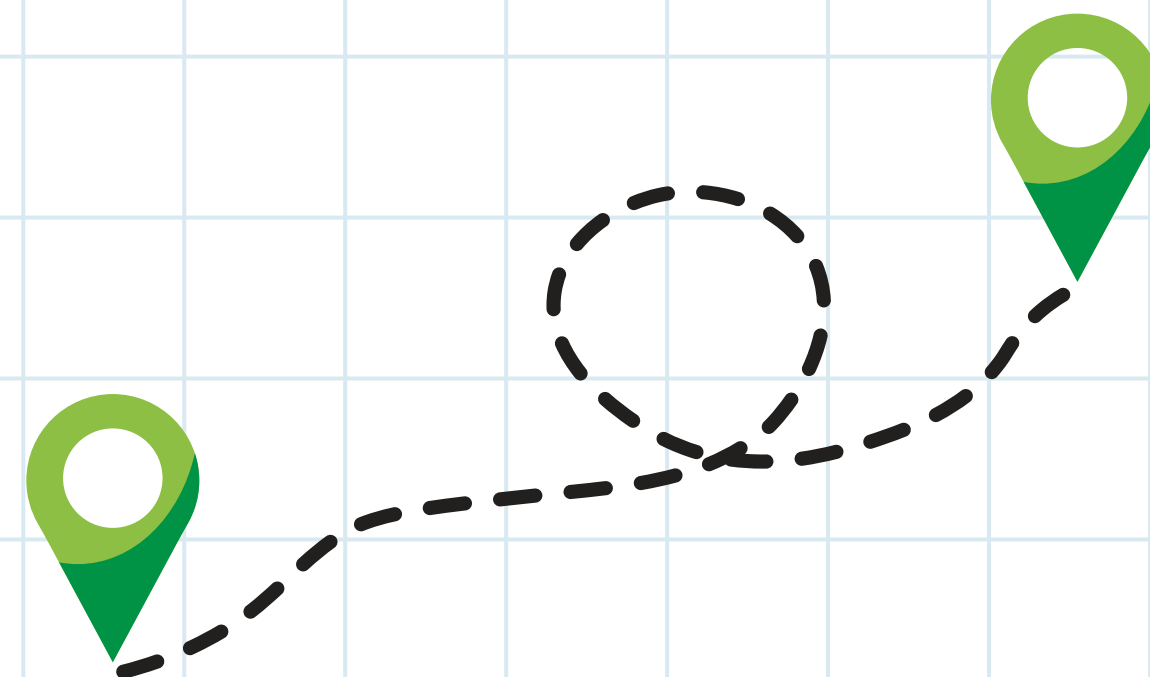

TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT

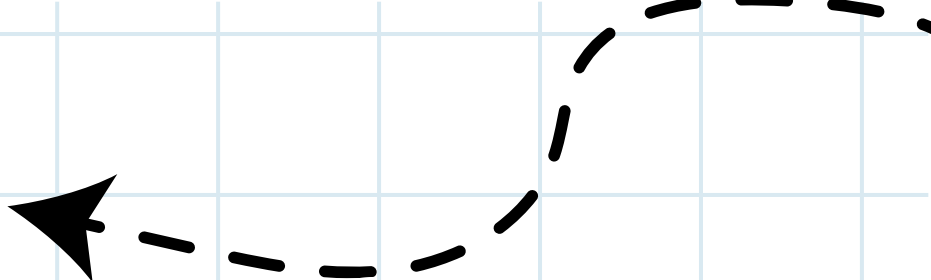

Estimated reimbursement per participant (round trip):

- Italy → Rimini: €28 (standard) / €56 (green travel – train, bus, carpooling)
- Romania, Bulgaria, Greece, Slovakia, Turkey, Portugal, Estonia → Rimini: most routes fall in the 500–1,999 km band (€309 / €417).
- Please check the official Erasmus+ distance calculator to confirm your exact amount.

Notes:

- Keep all tickets and boarding passes for reimbursement.
- Reimbursement is done after the training course, upon submission of travel documents and confirmation of participation.

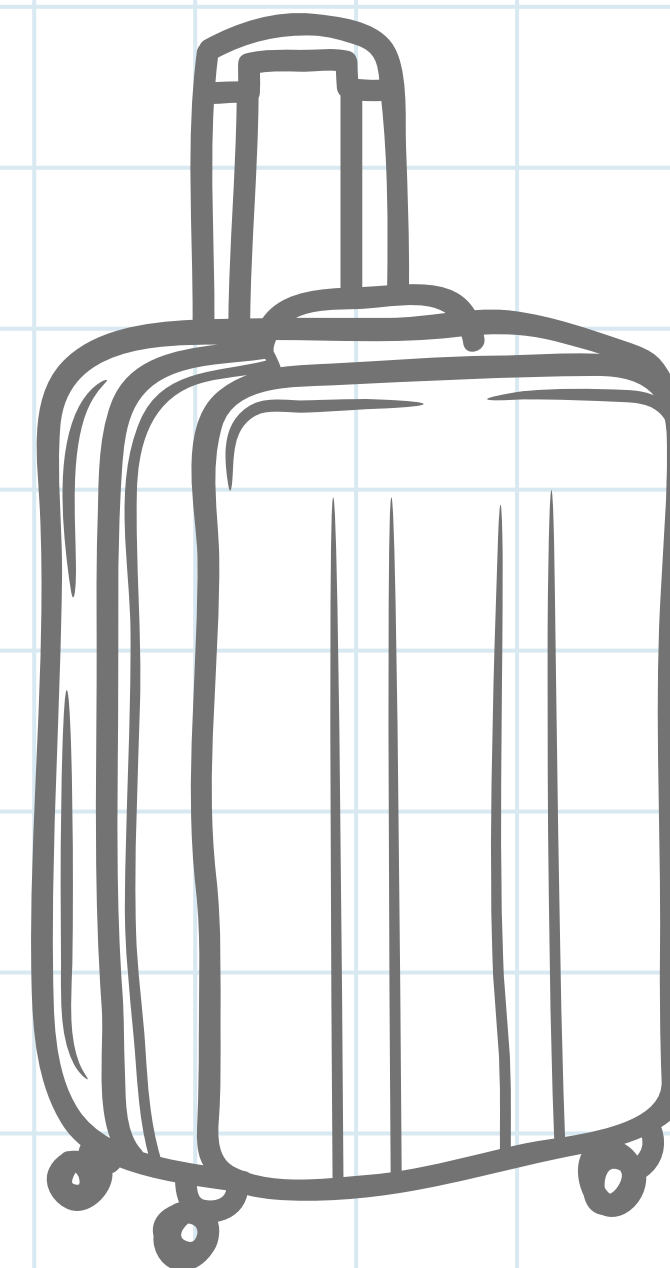

VENUE & ACCOMMODATION

- The training activities will take place at SMARTY Hotel, while accommodation will be provided at Hotel Marselli.
 - Both hotels are just a few steps away from each other and from the seaside, offering a comfortable and convenient setting for the training course.
 - Both venues are managed by MONDO REC, a local cooperative active in hospitality and social innovation. Their work focuses on creating welcoming environments that combine sustainable tourism, intercultural exchange, and community involvement.

WHAT TO BRING?

- Comfortable shoes – for walking and activities
- Warm clothes (layers recommended) – November in Rimini can be chilly
- Umbrella or rain jacket – in case of rain
- Positive vibes and open mindset
- Beach towel – if you want to enjoy the seaside
- Snacks, sweets, or biscuits – to share during our international coffee breaks
- Personal hygiene items & any needed medication – don't forget your essentials
- Reusable water bottle – let's reduce plastic waste
- Notebook & pen – for reflections, notes, and creative ideas
- Comfortable clothes – suitable for workshops, movement, and non-formal activities
- Travel documents – ID/passport, boarding passes, insurance (keep them safe!)
- Good mood & curiosity – your best contribution to the group
