Training course on Legislative Theatre methodology
6th–15th of February (Busteni, Romania)

Background of this training course:

Theatre of the Oppressed is a collective rehearsal for reality. Theatre of the Oppressed methods are highly adaptable to the needs of different communities, with a large capacity to cover all kinds of social issues: human rights problems, power abuse and oppression in different ways, lack of activism, discrimination, exclusion, poverty, marginalization, xenophobia, etc. and through a creative approach provides a space for people to reflect, find solutions to these topics and transfer the solutions in their lives.

Through Legislative Theatre, we address systemic issues, and call for systemic change through consultations with the affected target groups - this methodology allows you to work with vulnerable groups, to work grassroots, and to have a direct interaction and impact in the lives of oppressed young people.

The aim of our training is to increase youth workers capacities in using Legislative Theatre methodology in addressing systemic change and empower youth workers to work with public authorities in advocacy processes.

Other aspects

Important to have in mind before deciding to apply:

- If you do not provide an OID number your application will be considered ineligible.
- Your organization should be based in the same country as you are currently residing in. If your situation is different you might not be eligible to participate in the course.
- The process of the training prioritizes a quality and intensive learning process. There will be 6 hours of learning sessions every day and 1 half a day free from sessions in the entire training. There will be no trips or organized excursions offered – each participant will organize their free time as they wish.

Facilitators

The learning process will be guided and facilitated by Antonia Pîslariu and Monica Tudorache who share strong passion for promoting diversity, tolerance and a deep exploration of various human rights issues.

They bring to life powerful projects which embed a human rights culture and address various important issues through Theatre of the Oppressed methodology.
