

Contact Seminar for EVS sending and hosting organisations

CMS: "one-to-one EVS"

Worriken, 10-14 October 2008

- You are a project coordinator in an EVS hosting or sending organisation?
- You send or host 1 up to 4 EVS volunteers per year?
- You are looking for partner organisations?

The network of the three national agencies from German speaking community of Belgium, Liechtenstein and Luxemburg are organising a contact seminar for EVS sending and hosting organisation which are focussing their activities on individual EVS projects, not involving coordinating organisations.

The aims of the CMS are:

- Motivating small organisations to continue applying for one-to-one projects
- Underlining the advantages of one-to-one projects
- Promoting and supporting the creation of a network of SOs and HOs focussing their activities on individual EVS projects
- Agreeing on and/or elaborate helpful tools for the networking

Participants:

Participants should be actively involved in a sending or hosting organisation and being in direct contact with the whole EVS procedure. They should be motivated to establish partnerships with other organisations and to develop new EVS projects. They should work without a coordinating organisation.

- All Programme countries and partner countries from South East Europe (max 4).
- Minimum 20 and Maximum 40 participants.
- 1-2 participants from the same organisation.
- 1-2 organisations per country.

- ☞ Working language: English
- ☞ Working methods: Group work, group-building activities, discussions, information, sharing, good-practice exchange, ...
- ☞ Respective sending National Agencies are responsible for the pre-selection of their participants
- ☞ NAs BEDE, LI and LU will be responsible for the final selection of participants
