

Call for participants:
International Trainingcourse CREATIVITY: UNLOCKED

Action 4.3 of the E.U. 'Youth in Action Programme'

Are you a...

...youth worker, facilitator, senior youth club member, community worker or any other individual working in non-formal learning with young people...

There is a training course running from Monday, 12th July to Saturday, 17th July 2010 in Austria...

...where 25 participants from up to 10 European countries are coming together to enhance their creativity, learn about the Youth in Action Programme and network around local and international projects!

Description of the project

The overall aim...

...is for those who work with young people to gain skills, competences and confidence in using creative tools, methods and accessing their own creativity. It is intended that these skills will be passed on to young people who will gain the confidence and insight to engage and express themselves in society and become active citizens.

...for those already experienced in the field, we'd like you to share your expertise. Contributions of your experience are highly welcome.

You will also learn about the 'Youth in Action Program', which includes...

- ...funding possibilities
- ...networking for local & international projects
- ...develop project ideas

This training project will help you unlock your creativity and increase your confidence in your own resources and abilities using participatory methods in a fun week with an international group...

...drama workshop...teamwork activities...visual arts activities...creative space...

Conditions of Training

Travel...

... we will be able to reimburse 70% of the travel costs of the training, this is funded by the Youth in Action programme. This is paid when you return home and upon receipt of all travel costs, boarding passes etc.

Arrival day in Austria is Monday 12th of July and departure is Sunday, the 18th of July 2010.

Training & Accommodation...

...training costs, accommodation and meals will be 100% funded by the Youth in Action programme.

Training fee...

...there is a 50 euro participation fee, to be sent on confirmation of your participation at the training. This is non-refundable.
