

“EMPOWERING U2 LEAD UTH – Spanish Edition”

A training course on Leadership, Self-development and Project Management within the Youth in Action projects.

BACKGROUND	This 8-day training course entitled "Empowering U-2 lead Uth " aims to develop the potential of participants to become aware of their leadership capacity, working on their self-development in order to empower them to be effective leaders when working with young people in a non-formal environment. During this course, participants will engage in a number of activities where they will gain an increased awareness of their leadership style and their privileged role when working with young people. They will develop the skills, attitudes and approaches leaders require to impact positively on the lives of young people. After the success from this training course in 2011 in Switzerland, the team is looking forward to this second (and we will try, improved) edition. Some of the comments from participants during last edition in the final evaluation, were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - (Now) "I think I can make anything happen" - In learning outcomes: "Learning who I am" - (People in your association will benefit from this) "They will have more trust into someone that feels sure about what she's doing".
AIMS OF THE TRAINING COURSE	The aims of this training are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To assist participants in the personal self-development of their leadership competencies. 2. To enable participants to understand and trust their own ability to inspire young people. 3.
