

The Power of Non Formal Education - approach & tools

A Training Course for Promoters of the Youth in Action Programme

2013

Tuesday 24/09

Wednesday 25/09

Thursday 26/09

Friday 27/09

Saturday 28/09

Team meeting

Lunch

Arrival participants & installing in the different
houses

Dinner in 'Farmácia dos
Copos' - Marmeleira

Welcome activity
Welcome drink

Presentation of TC, Youthpass, Team + pax, expectations in different educational settings

Break

Informal, formal and non-formal education: understandings and
conceptualisation.
Examples presented by pax.
The importance of setting within NFE

Lunch in community centre

Exercise: 1 step forward

Break

Learning styles
Characteristics and approaches
'Power to the people'

Dinner in Adega
Marmeleira

Youth-ta-pass moment

Sharing realities within informal setting

Groups experience: simulation exercise Plan B (citizenship & society building)

Break

Debriefing Plan B

Lunch in community centre

Analysing and identifying NFE aspects & approaches within Plan B

Defining of learning outcomes within this NFE setting

Break

'Power to the people'

Youth-ta-pass moment

International Dinner with 'local families' in Vila da Marmeleira

Intercultural evening in the village & local
happening

Orientating our personal learning
objectives

Break

The future EU Programme for youth

'Power to the people'
Youth-ta-pass moment

Late lunch in the Salt-
mines – Rio Maior

Optional guided cultural tour
+ free time

Dinner in Quinzena -
Santarem

Free evening

Tools in Non Formal Education
Examples in their own youth work
reality

Sharing of practice and previous experiences

Break

'Power to the People'

Barbeque in village park

Youthpass
Personal action plan

Youth-ta-pass moment

TC evaluation & closure

Dinner with local population
on public event

Goodbye party: public
event involving the population of the village

A training course organised within the philosophy of YiA ...with, for and by actors in the youth field.

This training programme can still undergo slight changes according to local impact & involvement of the local population

Power to the People: evaluation moment in group combined with a forum during which participants can discuss happenings of the training and take decisions (if needed) for future programme elements.