

Invitation for training on understanding group process for participants coming from such countries as: Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Romania, Italy, Croatia

Personal Development Institute is pleased to invite you to the training course on understanding group process and developing competences on group work with young people.

Training will be held from 11th to 18th May 2014 in Poland. We hope that after having read the description of the training course idea you be willing to take part in course and taking benefits out of it.

Training Content:

We do believe that only youth educator understanding group process might support young people in their growth and both social and individual development. It will be a short training course, there won't be a lot of time but it will be a good starter for further experiences for those interested in working with group, professional and personal development.

During course we will invite you to reflect upon yourself as the leading person, your individual working style. There will be a chance to develop your interpersonal skills that are crucial when working with groups of youngsters. Participants will be reflecting upon their relations with others - about the way they tend to communicate. Participants by better understanding themselves will be able to understand others needs and communications styles what will happen by work in intercultural group and usage of innovative and interactive working methods.

In this course you will work in partnership with a diverse range of people from across the Europe. The participants will consider what interpersonal skills are important when working with youngster especially those with difficulties.

There will be around 15 participants from different European countries.

Profile of the participants:

- ❑ be aged 24 or over,
- ❑ be able to communicate in English,
- ❑ have already some experience in working with young people as volunteer or professional
- ❑ be interested in group processes, personal and professional development and be ready for deep emotionally activities
- ❑ be highly motivated to actively participate in the whole training and to contribute to the development of the programme and life of the group of the participants.
- ❑ Searching for inspirations for new methods that might be applied in daily work with groups
- ❑ be resident of one of following countries Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Romania, Italy, Croatia

Financial Condition:

Organizer is providing board and lodging fully. Participants will be reimbursed on spot in cash 70% of their travel costs on the base of tickets.

For further information, please write to: trainings@developmentlab.com.pl

Apply on-line: <http://goo.gl/wAh9d9>

Deadline for application: 10th April 2014

All participants will be informed about selection results by e-mail before 15th April. In information e-mail you will get detailed programme day by day, trainers bio, practical guidelines how to get venue.