

Follow the Impulse – improvisation as a tool in youth work Draft programme

Date: 17th-22nd of May, 2016

Place: Budapest, Hungary

Arrival 17 th of May	Day 1 18 th of May	Day 2 19 th of May	Day 3 20 th of May	Day 4 21 st of May	Departure 22 nd of May
Arrival day	Introduction of the program official welcome, Erasmus +	Improvisational theatre	Improvisation & Creativity/Creation	Reflection on the experience	Departure day
	Tea break	Tea break	Tea break	Tea break
	Creating group focus and atmosphere through applied improvisation	Improvisational dance	Improvisation in social actions social-political dimension	How to apply improvisation in youth work/education?
	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
	What is improvisation? common understanding	Improvisation & Emotions psychological approach	Improvisation in a group context in the city of Budapest	How to apply improvisation in my work?
Tea break	Tea break	Tea break	Tea break	Tea break
Registration	Improvisation in artistic creation Reflection time	Reflection on the experience	Improvisation in a group context in the city of Budapest	Evaluation, YouthPass, Closing
Dinner	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner	Dinner
Welcome evening - getting to know each other	Chatting tables on Improvisation	Free evening	Dinner out	Farewell evening	