“Guerilla Youthwork”

Dear participants,

NaturKultur e.V. from Germany is happy to organize the “Guerilla Youthwork” training and networking course from 14-22 May 2017, in Braunlage, Germany. The project is financed from Erasmus + program.

Participating countries: Germany, Norway, Croatia, Latvia, Greece, Macedonia, Spain, Romania and Turkey.

Number of participants per country: 4

Venue: Braunlage, Germany

Target group of participants

Youth workers and youth leaders, trainers, project managers, and other that are interested in finding “guerrilla” ways how to do our work better and more efficient, how to have better cost management systems, or partner data base etc.

Good level of English is required for this training as the tempo will be high.

Goals and agenda for the project

The main goal of the training and networking project is to identify and solve problems related to lack of financial sustainability, not having sustainable office solution, big turnover of volunteers that come and go all the time, lack of management capabilities from the founders of the organization, lack of leadership skills, lack of PR and media skills, lack of IT skills vis-à-vis visibility, lack of quality network that organizations are facing, lack of knowledge of all programs where they can apply and receive funds for their activities, lack of strategic networking, not having relevance in the society they operate, lack of meaningful projects that address burning issues in society etc.

This project tends to find solutions for many administration, accounting and other challenges on the basis of real examples and assessment of organizations.

Having in mind that our projects intention is to find solutions for some of these challenges using resources that we have at the moment, we want to work with youth workers from smaller organizations that are facing similar challenges and to ask them to work together to find solutions that will provide sustainability and effectiveness in the work of the organizations. We intend to put those solutions on paper and share them with other organizations that were not present on our project (Salto Youth, other platforms). We want to share know-how and the best practices, making our findings and solutions applicable, easy to follow and long-term-goals oriented.

Also we want to design projects and make partnerships with reliable organizations for the period 2017-2019, having in mind that many of the topics that we are targeting are going to remain relevant in the following years (refugees, EU challenges, minority background citizens and their integration).

We are going to stay in a very simple accommodation something like youth hostel, which is actually old group house in a middle of nowhere.

- You are going to be accommodated in 3-4 beds per room. The room allocation is going to be from mixed nationalities, but from the same gender.
- We will be the only group in the house. It was important to us not to be bothered with other groups and other timetables and rules, so that is why we decided to come here where we would be alone. We

BRAUNLAGE

Braunlage is a town and health resort in the Goslar district in Lower Saxony in Germany. It lies within the Harz mountain range, south of the Brocken. Nowadays Braunlage's main business is tourism, particularly ski tourists. Good ski resorts nearby are the Sonnenberg and the slopes on the Wurmberg.

Braunlage started out as a pit settlement in the forest first mentioned as brunenlohe in a 1253 deed, which was revived, when the Counts of Blankenburg established an ironworks in 1561. With the County Braunlage fell to the Duchy of Brunswick-Wolfenbüttel in 1599. In the 17th century it was a small market town, finally in 1934 it received town privileges and the municipal status as a health resort.

In 1963 it became the location of the longest gondola lift (of Northern Germany), with a length of 2.8 kilometers and a height difference of 400 meters to the mountain station on the Wurmberg mountain, see Wurmberg Gondola Lift.
