Summary of the project

“Inclusion Workers” is a project, consisting in a training and a seminar, as a response to the needs we and our partners identified - to train their staff in becoming more experienced in working with young Roma and also to increase the number of young Roma which are involved in youth activities. We want with this project to respond to the lack of experience and knowledge about how to work with Roma young people of the 30 youth workers from 10 NGO's which are working in this field.

The general aim of our project is to capacitate the Roma and non Roma civil society to work with Roma young people.

The general objectives of the project are:

- To capacitate the 10 partner NGO's to work with young Roma
- To foster the use of the guide “9 steps in working with Roma youngsters”
- To increase the participation of young Roma in the life of the local communities
- To promote nonformal education and practical learning for young Roma

The activities of the project consist in:

A1: Training Course

One 8 days training organized between 10 -20.06.2017 in Milcoveni, Romania.

Location: Marabu Camp, Milcoveni, Romania

No. of participants: 7 participants / country

Partner countries: Czech Republic, Poland, Macedonia, Italy, Romania.

After the training will follow a practical activity organized by each country group home in the partner country in the period of 7 month between the two meetings. This activity will take place in each of the partner countries.

A2: Seminar

One evaluation and good practices seminar organized in December 2017 in Litomyšl, Czech Republic.

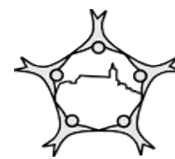

Location: Castel Brewery, Litomyšl, Czech Republic

No. of participants: 7 participants / country

Partner countries: Czech Republic, Poland, Macedonia, Italy, Romania.

It is mandatory that the participants of the training to participate also in the seminar.

Summary of the training course

The first activity of the project is a training course that will be held in the Marabu Camp, in Milcoveni, Romania, from 10th – 20th June 2017.

The training will serve as theoretical part and professional informations about youth work activity and about Roma. Then the local activity and mentoring to try to use practically the theoretical informations received during the training, but also with the aim to build connections between Roma and non Roma young people in each partner country and make more visible for the young Roma the partner NGO's. The project will end with the final evaluation and good practices seminar.

The objectives of the training are:

- To train the 30 participants in order that they can become professional youth workers which work with Roma and Non Roma young people (develop the skills, competences and knowledges);
- To prepare 30 young participants to develop inclusive activities;
- To train 30 young Roma and non Roma to use practically the guide "9 steps in working with Roma youngsters";
- To increase the knowledge of the 30 participants about Roma culture and history.

The working methods:

- Sharing and learning: sharing of participants about their experiences; knowledge about the issue and different practices of the various partner organizations on grassroots level;
- Erasmus+ introduction about aims, actions, opportunities;
- Visit of local Roma community in Romania: get in touch with the local community, give space for informal conversations, get to know local realities and raise the interest of local youth activists in the international encounter and the issue of the training;
- Introduction of the guide "9 steps in working with Roma youngsters" we will use practical some methods from the guide;
- Follow-up initiatives: field work for a practical outcome and results which go beyond the project, initiate the self-initiative of the participants;
- Reflection about methods, working group on follow-up actions, concrete planning of actions in the working group; sharing the results in the plenary;
- Evaluation: evaluation by all participants, individually, small groups, plenary,

written evaluation;

-Documentation (filmed and written) and promotion of good practices online.

Participants' profile

The target group in this project for the training and for the seminar are the same 30 participants from a wide variety of cultural backgrounds, which are volunteers, trainers, councilors, social workers or youth workers coming from Czech Republic, Romania, Italy, Poland, and Macedonia.

We want our participants, to be youth who are already involved in working with Roma and Non Roma young people or are planning to do that. We target first members of the partner's team or people which are part of the team of other NGO's which are cooperating with the partners, in order to facilitate a "snow ball effect" of activism against exclusion and the promotion participation of young Roma and at the same time to promote the use of the "9 steps in working with Roma youngsters".

Each partner organization of the project will select the participants taking in consideration the following gender balance.

Active participation in the project

Intercultural evening is the chance to present your country in special way – bring some special good – food and drinks from your country to make us nice company during the country presentation. Discuss with your group how you will surprise the others with the culture transferring expression. Prepare a sketch for 5 minutes!

Anyway start to think what national drink, food, games, stories, etc. you can bring with you!

Check some information about the national Roma culture, what is the situations that Roma youth and Roma in general are facing in your region and also how youth work in your country helps the inclusion process of Roma in the community.

We design two open evenings during the training, so in case that you want to prepare some activities you are free to do it! Just let us know in time!

What to bring with you

1. Clothes and practical stuff the weather can be pretty nice or not in June – so check out the forecast:

<http://www.accuweather.com/en/ro/milcoveni/278212/weather-forecast/278212> and choose your cloths according to weather, most of the activities we are planning outside, but you never know. Don't forget to take comfortable shoes for the excursion!

2. We don't have Euro! Please be aware you might need to change money – 1 Euro is 4,50 RON (please pay attention where you change your money – some of this services have commission or bad rates – ask us before you change).

3. All the things that you need for a shower: towel, bathrobe, shower gel, shampoo, slippers etc.

4. Intercultural evening stuff. Please bring whatever you consider that is representing your country!

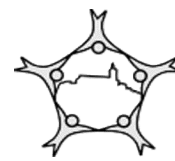

5. Working stuff some ideas / dreams / national information regarding Roma cultures and group and youth work in your country!

6. Table games. In case you have some games at home that you will like to play with the other participants feel free to bring it.
