

YOCOMO

ETS TRAINING FOR YOUTH WORKERS TO WORK INTERNATIONALLY

WHAT?

This Pilot training course is a first step into the ETS Competence Model for Youth Workers. It is a unique journey of educational opportunities meant for you, passionate and adventurous youth workers, who are ready and willing to reflect on, share and discover your personal unique journeys, and explore how to work with competence models.

MAIN COURSE ELEMENTS

- Explore a competence-based approach and the ETS Competence Model for Youth Workers: WHAT it IS what it is NOT;
- Experiment, play and see how the Competence Model can be used in your practice;
- Focus on particular parts and/or aspects of the Competence Model and explore them in more depth;
- Dedicate time for self-exploration and reflective practice;
- Work with (self)assessment/reflection in the framework of the Competence Model;
- Explore how to make your learning and development beneficial for groups/organisations/communities;
- Share educational practices from your youth work experience and plan further.

THE COMPETENCE MODEL

This pilot course is based on the ETS competence for youth workers to work internationally, available here:
