Information about CVS-Bulgaria

CVS-Bulgaria is a non-governmental organisation that has been working in the field of international volunteer exchange since 1998 and was officially registered in 2002 as an organisation working in public benefit. CVS-Bulgaria is a branch of the international peace and volunteer-exchange network of Service Civil International (SCI - www.sciint.org) and a full member of South Eastern European Youth Network (SEEYN - www.seeyn.org).

CVS-Bulgaria aims to promote the values of volunteer work through organising variety of voluntary activities; to motivate young people to be active and participate in volunteer actions-

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

thus taking part in the development of the civil society; to promote and support intercultural understanding and solidarity, social justice and environment preservation.

Main activities of CVS-Bulgaria are: organising short- and longterm volunteer projects, youth exchanges, trainings, hosting and sending volunteers for projects in public benefit in Bulgaria, Europe and the world, as well as working in partnership with other NGOs on local and international level to promote volunteering as a tool for active citizenship.

Since 2010 we are developing The Refugee project (www.refugeeproject.eu) - a local project connected with asylum seekers and refugees, in cooperation with Caritas Sofia. Yearly more than 100 local volunteers work in the project which beneficiaries are more than 1000 asylum seekers within different age and ethnic groups. Each volunteer is dedicating at least two hours per week over a minimum period of 4 months. We have different activities (Bulgarian and English lessons, but also art workshops, music activities, sport and games sessions, IT lessons, maths and science and cookery) in all three reception and accommodation centers in Sofia - Ovcha Kupel, Voenna Rampa and Vrazhdebna. Over the year we organise excursion and different raising awareness campaigns.

CVS-Bulgaria also organised a local project called “Break the wall: volunteering for peace and human rights”. It aimed at promoting active citizenship by sharing and strengthening human rights initiatives of local organisations in various cities in Bulgaria.
