

- THE VALUE FAIR 2018 -

HOW NON FORMAL EDUCATION (NFE) CAN CONTRIBUTE TO A BETTER LIVING TOGETHER

PORTUGAL – CASCAIS: EUROPEAN YOUTH CAPITAL 2018

14 – 18 DECEMBER 2018

FRIDAY 14/12	SATURDAY 15/12	SUNDAY 16/12	MONDAY 17/12	TUESDAY 18/12
Arrival	Values	The Reality	From action to impact	Values into practice: Networking, action and transferability
Arrival of participants in Cascais	Leaving to Arroquelas Confort break in local NGO	Keynote speaker: migration and refugees Debate – panel – buzz groups	How to measure values and indicators: short, middle and long term	Networking fair and ongoing coaching/consulting possibilities (Floating break) Short parallel input sessions
	Who is who: creating an inspiring resource bank (policymakers, experts)	How can NFE be an answer to this	Confort break continuation	Presentation of results Reflection Evaluation
	Lunch in Arroquelas Vila da Marmeleira: Rotating sessions exploring the 5 'values'	Lunch The general rejection of 'the other' and polarisation Reflection	Lunch The role of NFE: values realised in concrete impact	Lunch
	Confort break Impact examples of NFE	Confort break Organised Open Agenda	Confort break
Dinner Welcome evening Official welcome word Official closure event European Youth Capital Cascais 2018	Debate Keynote speaker Dinner in >20 local families, followed by gathering at centralised meeting point (Busses return to Cascais)	Dinner Free evening	Buffet Sharing evening	Departures

Please note that this is a very general overview of the planned programme, highlighting the main topics.