Slovak presidency V4 conference

10th April Wednesday	11th April Thursday	12th April Friday
	Arrival of participants	9:15 - 9:45 Introduction (summary of yesterday, introduction of workshops) Lifeology presentation
		9:45 – 12:15 Parallel workshops a.) How can youthwork help to identify talents? The first part of the workshop will be dedicated to explore the place and role of youthwork in talent identification in the countries involved. The second part will provide space to name the opportunities and challenges youthwork face in talent identification, and possible next steps to support the role of youthwork in talent identification. b.) New approaches/trends in youthwork – fostering talents The workshop will concentrate on approaches, methods and tools used in youth work to support young people in developing their talents or putting them to work in practice. The workshop will be divided into two parts: first part will be about sharing own experiences and good practices, the other will them look at questions or challenges youth work is facing in supporting talents of young people and how to overcome them.

		c.) Talent development support in regional and national level This workshop will provide a space to seek systemic ways of talent development. Questions we will try to answer are: How the decisionmakers can shape talent development policy on a regional and national level? How such a process should be designed in a participatory way? What measures and tool can be used to support talent development?
