countering hate speech

YOUTH WORK

PARTICIPATING COUNTRIES

The project “Youth work countering hate speech” is a multinational training course aimed at educating youth workers and social activists on anti hate speech, media literacy and human rights education.

The project will involve 30 youth workers coming from 10 countries both EU members and partner countries from Caucasus–Bulgaria, UK, Latvia, Italy, Romania, Denmark, Greece, Armenia, Georgia, Azerbaijan . The project is a result of extensive partnership and will be implemented in Bansko, Bulgaria between 08 and 15 of April 2019. The partner consortium believes in the power of youth work to counter hate speech, discrimination, racism, nationalism and radicalization and with this project we aim to strengthen the skills, knowledge and competences of youth workers from the participating countries to combat hate speech and prevent radicalization of youth by human right education. The methodology that will be applied at this training course is based on non-formal education and human rights education approach. The overall aim of the project is to equip youth workers with the needed tools, knowledge, information, competences and attitudes to counter hate speech and work with young people using non formal and human rights education
