IMECE.LAB 2020

GERMAN-TURKISH YOUTH WORK

www.imeceyouth.org

8
DECEMBER
2020

WE INVITE YOU

- to exchange your experiences on how you managed to stay in contact with your German/Turkish partner during these last months
- to share your good practice of digital youth projects and solidary actions between Germany and Turkey
- to discuss the opportunities and limits of digital projects
- to explore blended projects combining face-to-face and online formats
- to find ideas and partners for new projects (online and offline)
- to join hands to strengthen the community of German-Turkish youth work

IMECE [imɛdʒɛ]

is a Turkish word that means joining hands to create something.

This is exactly what we intend to do!

PARTICIPANT PROFILES

- Young people and alumni of youth exchanges – Young volunteers and alumni of volunteering and solidarity projects
- Youth workers and leaders of international youth activities
- Representatives of NGOs active in the field of youth work and cross-border volunteering
- Public actors such as representatives of municipalities and other policy makers

IMECE.Lab is facilitated by Jochen Butt-Pośnik.

IMECE.Lab is a cooperation of the German-Turkish Youth Bridge, IJAB - International Youth Service of the Federal Republic of Germany as well as the National Agencies for Erasmus + YOUTH IN ACTION and the European Solidarity Corps in Germany (JUGEND für Europa) and Turkey (Turkish National Agency). With this event, the partner organisations continue a row of events to support German-Turkish youth work and to make the potential of youth mobility projects visible. Since 2015, there have been 3 previous events that took place alternately in Berlin and Istanbul.
