

Tuesday, 2nd November – DAY 1

ARRIVALS

Start of the EAYW programme at 16:00

Welcome and opening

Introduction to the Academy as a space for peer learning about current trends and innovation in youth work

Key insights from the EAYW research on innovation in youth work

Evening: Welcome reception

Wednesday, 3rd November – DAY 2

Plenary opening

Theme 1: Breaking patterns and shifting mindsets

Parallel workshops (90 min)

Aga Byrczek	Cazalla Intercultural (Spain)	Tools and approaches for working with young people against (invisible) racism and other microaggressions
Safi Sabuni and Eva Reina	Eurodesk and ERYICA	A European competence framework for youth information workers
Peter Mitchell	Lernlabor (Germany)	Hybrid projects (and how they can be really cool)
Karin Wouda	Awesome People (Sweden)	Social inclusion by fulfilling dreams using the PiFbase method
Seval Gülen	Karakutu Association (Turkey)	Memory Walk
Miriam Teuma	Agenzija Zghazagh - The Maltese Youth Agency	Development and implementation of a new youth policy for Malta
Timmy Boutsen	De Ambrassade vzw and University College Leuven -Limburg (UCLL), expertise center Inclusive Society.	Research project on the impact of youth work (Belgium)

Getting ready for the future. Inspiring thoughts for reflection, debate and action – part 1

Lunch break

Theme 2: Recognising larger trends, seeing interconnections and building ecosystems

Parallel workshops (90 min.)

Mateja Morić	Ljubljana Pride Association	Beyond Youth Work: a holistic and participatory approach to addressing young people's unmet needs (Slovenia)
Marta Hormaechea Huguet	Open Cultural Center (Spain)	MigraCode - a free web development academy for young migrants and refugees
Mario Žuliček	Association of Cities of the Republic of Croatia	City for Youth – recognizing and promoting quality of local youth policies
Aušrinė Diržinskaitė-Kazlauskienė	Europos namai (House of Europe) (Lithuania)	From initiative to network: how to seed and cultivate a youth grass-roots movement?
Amr Arafa	The University of Hong Kong	General Education: establishing a youth centre within a university
Snezana Baclija Knoch & Darko Marković	SALTO Training & Cooperation Resource Centre	'It takes a whole system to 'develop' a youth worker' – a systemic approach as an innovative way to support youth workers' competence development
Elke Führer & Tanya Basarab	Jugend für Europa & Council of Europe – European Commission Youth Partnership	The European Youth Work Agenda – a new framework for strengthening and further developing youth work in Europe! Policy commitments to youth work. How can the youth work community engage? (to be confirmed)

The Field learning forum: What are we learning as European youth work field?

Evening: Networking Market Place

Thursday, 4th November – DAY 3

Plenary opening

Theme 3: Rethinking innovation: what is innovative about it?

Parallel workshops (90 min.)

Elie Demerseman	YES Forum	The YourEP Experiment: key lessons for inclusive & accessible political simulations
Ion Donea	UNFPA Moldova, Ministry of Education, Culture and Research of the Republic of Moldova, Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation	Supporting the development of youth work at the local level through youth centres (Moldova)
Mary Drosopoulos	Changing the Story Project (a synergy of the University of Leeds/Prishtina & Bournemouth)	Re-imagining the space and context: youth and intercultural dialogue in the digital realm
Susanne Zels	Values Unite	Creating a European learning hub for democratic competences
Amanda Milan	Spazio Giovani social enterprise (Italy)	Skills at Stake – progress: digital transformation of a peer-education youth work practice
Ksenja Perko	Public institute Mladi zmaji (Slovenia)	The transformation of an unusable city bus into a mobile youth centre
Akin Fatih De Vos	Graffiti vzw	"Beastig" - hip hop boot camps for Belgium's disadvantaged youth (to be confirmed)

Getting ready for the future. Inspiring thoughts for reflection, debate and action – part 2

Lunch break

Theme 4: Getting ready for the future and creating cultures of innovation

Parallel workshops (90 min.)

Francesco Capellini	Animar - Associação Portuguesa para o Desenvolvimento Local and Instituto Marquês Valle Flôr \   FES Portugal \   EcoGerminar	Academia de Ativismo (Academy of Activism, Portugal)
Michael Herkendell	Business Development Dortmund, Chamber of Crafts Dortmund, Neighbourhood management, Schools, various companies, Youth social work services	Digital Learning Factory Dortmund (Germany) - Rethinking (Digital) Education
Simone Ferrecchia	Digijeunes (France)	Maker Education: learning by doing and learning to learn
Sander Puls, Laura Gielis	Grondplan vzw (Belgium)	Nachtplan (translated as 'a plan for the night')
Etch K. Mabaluki & Lasse Siurala	University of Rennes and Tallinn University	A new approach to integrated youth policy - reflecting on history, admitting failures and focusing on collaborative governance (to be confirmed)
Marja Moisala	South-Eastern Finland University of Applied Sciences	An online community - arena for inclusion
Dr Anna Kadzik-Bartoszewska	Erasmus Plus, Partners: The Gaiety School of Acting, The Scoop Foundation (Ireland), IGAM (Turkey), Greek Forum of Refugees, Freiwilligen- Zentrum (Germany, Augsburg)	ISAVE Inclusive Self-Advocacy Education and Empowerment for Young Refugees and Asylum Seekers living in temporary accommodations

The Field learning forum: What are we learning as European youth work field?

Evening: Informal time together

Friday, 5th November – DAY 4

Plenary opening

Theme 5: Building resources for supporting innovation and quality in youth work

Parallel workshops (60 min.)

Rita Bergstein	Jugend für Europa, German National Agency for Erasmus+ and European Solidarity Corps, youth field	FOCUS: Learning (website with resources from formal and non-formal learning)
Veronika Stefan	Salto Participation and Information Resource Centre	Participation Resource Pool – Dive into the best practices & tools for Youth Participation!
Henrique Goncalves	Salto Inclusion and Diversity Resource Centre	Web platform called “Inclusion and Diversity in Digital Youth Work”
Tanya Basarab	Youth Partnership between the European Commission and the Council of Europe	Resource library on recognition of youth work in Europe
Sladjana Petkovic	European Commission, DG EAC, Youth unit	Quality Youth Work and how to measure it? Insight in the revised Dashboard on EU Youth Indicators
Andreas Hirsch	Jugend für Europa, German National Agency for Erasmus+ and European Solidarity Corps, youth field	Environment, climate change, sustainable development – How green is youth work?

Inspirational input on future thinking

What have we learned these days?

Evaluation and Closing

Lunch

DEPARTURES

