PROJECT INFORMATION

The project "Youth-led Community Peacebuilding" will bring together 24 youth workers and young community leaders from Armenia, Azerbaijan, Ukraine, Georgia, Germany, Spain, Poland and Czech Republic.

The project is composed of 2 core activities:

- a training course on youth empowerment and peacebuilding that took place in Georgia, Kobuleti, from 02 – 10.07.2021 .
- a training course on planning needs-based youth peacebuilding initiatives that will take place in Wierzchosławice, Poland from 24.02 – 04.03.2023.

PROJECT AIM AND OBJECTIVES

Youth-led Community Peacebuilding project activities aim to respond to specific learning needs:

- A better understanding of reasons and mechanisms driving religious, ethnic or identity-based tensions at the community level
- A better understanding of approaches to youth-led peacebuilding on a community level, particularly in or across communities with religious, ethnic or identity-based tensions
- Knowledge of community research and assessment tools to aggregate information about the situation existing in their community and how to practically use these tools
- Knowledge of practical tools for context analysis and how to use them in a participatory project design with young people

The project objectives are the following:

- To enhance the competencies of youth workers and young leaders to empower young people to engage in peacebuilding through youth peace advocacy
- To design innovative youth-driven advocacy projects fostering the involvement of young people in peace processes at the local level
- To intensify cooperation between civil society organisations for the promotion of youth participation at the local level
