A smooth start with online learning

It doesn't matter if you agree or not with online learning and the online dimension of youth work. In the end of the day, what matters the most is to support young people and youth workers developing competences in any possible way. If only one person can benefit from it, then it is worth efford. HOP Online Learning supports hundreds of young people and youth workers.

A smooth start with online learning

I was provided with a variety of digital tools and practically tried out the opportunities that HOP platform offers. What is more, I felt supported and inspired by facilitators who were always eager to help and motivated me and my project group to progress with our course.

As digitalisation and online learning became a big part of our life, we, educators, have to consider options and find opportunities to empower young people and youth workers through information and education. And HOP platform is a great option for this!
