Weaving Songs and Stories

Monday, 22nd May 2023,
11:00 - 13:00 EEST

~ free event ~

“To Be Human Is to Sing Your Own Song.”

~ Mary Oliver

You are wholeheartedly invited on a short and magical journey in order to reconnect with the wild and sacred wisdom of our ancestors, the Arts of Storytelling and Singing. The intention, is no other than supporting you in using their medicine in your work with youth.

During the E+ project “Weaving Songs and Stories” we have developed 2 online courses, one for each art. This online event, is an invitation to share them with you, in an experiential and artful way. Are you saying “yes”?

The objectives of this online event are for you:

- To delve into the magic of Stories and Songs
 - To receive the 2 innovative methodologies we developed, based on storytelling and singing
 - To receive inspiration and passion to use stories and songs in your work with youth

Poem

"What are you waiting for?"

~ Kai Siedenburg

What powerful seeds
lie dormant
deep within you,
longing
to break through the surface
and reach their slender stems
toward the light?

What tender buds
are swelling
inside you,
yearning to unfurl
their radiant petals
and reveal their hidden beauty?

What songs and stories
are swirling deep within your breast?
What wild
and magical dreams
are stirring your soul?

What are you
waiting for,
dear one?
The world is hungry
for your beauty,
calling you
to bring forth
your deepest gifts.
