

Dear Wanderer,

Thank you for opening this letter. Let us begin with this reading.

*There is only one life
you can call your own and a thousand others
you can call by any name you want.*

Hold to the truth you make every day with your own body, don't turn your face away.

*Hold to your own truth
at the center of the image you were born with.*

From where we begin and our intentions

Nature, our home, the place of restoration, healing, empowerment, and visions. Rilke once said: "If we surrendered to earth's intelligence, we could rise up rooted, like trees."

"SOUL - the craft of soulcentric development" is an invitation to get in touch with the Earth's intelligence, that we find within and without ourselves.

Crafted with soulful passion, integrity, and professionalism, "SOUL - the craft of soulcentric development" is a profound immersion that will bring the participants in deep explorations of three realms:

- The personal Inner World (the realm of soul, of personal resources, gifts, powers, dreams, visions, longings, personal callings, and mission).
- The Earth (the realm of the natural world and of the more than human beings).
- The Others (the realm of the human community, of deep and authentic relations).

The process is envisioned for engaging and enhancing the four human dimensions: the physical, the mental, the emotional and the spiritual.

The training is based on the principles, concepts and tools of soulcentric human development (the way of nature and soul).

“Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?” Mary Oliver

SOUL - the craft of soulcentric development is an invitation:

- To live into a way of being that is authentic, deep and sacred, that serves our greater needs, that is grounded and rooted into the natural principles, that invites maturity, imagination, service and wildness.
- To restore and expand the great sources of inward nourishment and renewal. We will explore our psyches and cultivate our inner resources and potentials.
- To prepare for the death of our little life and reemergence in a bigger life in touch with the moving cosmos and our souls. We will feel into what is no longer serving us and into what is calling us to manifest in the next phases of our lives, making space for the gifts of our souls to emerge and come into the world.

Through this course we intend the followings:

- To create a space of deep transformation and learning, in which the participants can evolve at personal and professional level.
- To develop the knowledge of those involved, in the craft of soulcentric development.
- To engage the participants in the process of skills development in the themes of the course.
- To inspire and motivate the participants to become agents of cultural transformation.
- To support the participants become multipliers of soulcentric human development.

The way we are going to work

We are going to experience and explore soulcentric development, which is a human development approach that places nature and the human soul at the center of its actions. We combine elements of eco-depth psychology, inner work, nature connection, rewilding, indigenous wisdom, non-religious spirituality, art and principles observed in nature.

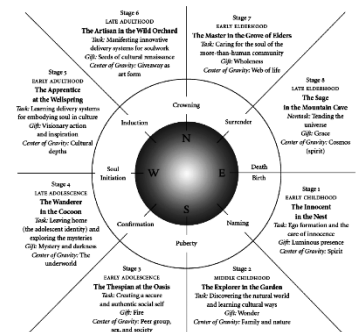

The main tools

Soulcentric development is based on two main instruments, that were developed by the American depth psychologist Bill Plotkin, in two of his books. We will explore and work with these instruments by using a wide variety of practices, activities, and discussion.

The Nature-based Map of the Human Psyche and The Soulcentric Developmental Wheel

Intrapersonal view of the Self and Subpersonalities
(how we relate to ourselves)

Practices and activities that will be offered

Nature explorations, solo time in nature, presentations, interactive discussions, reflection groups, working in pairs, mentoring practices, journaling, symbolic art, music making, singing, drumming and rhythms, storytelling, rituals and ceremonies, deep imagery journeys, fasting, contemplative practices (silence, meditation, praying), sharing circles and the way of council, dancing, embodiment, authentic movement, poetry, nature connection activities, hiking etc.

The right people

This course is for those who feel a strong resonance with what we have to offer. It is especially for professional youth workers who are active in the youth field (youth workers, trainers, educators, NGO leaders and mentors) who are willing to explore and develop themselves and after that to resourcefully inspire and empower others, in nurturing and life enhancing ways.

The participants must be over 18 years, actively participate in the youth field, and have a good level of English.

Eligible participants must have legal residency in one of these countries: Ireland, Poland and Romania.

The place and our future home
