

LET'S PUT ON OUR

INTERSECTIONALITY GLASSES

INTERNATIONAL TRAINING COURSE

27 APRIL - 3 MAY 2024
MAGDEBURG, GERMANY

“ THE AIM

Youth workers can often face dilemmas and challenges about inclusion: what can help us navigate these?

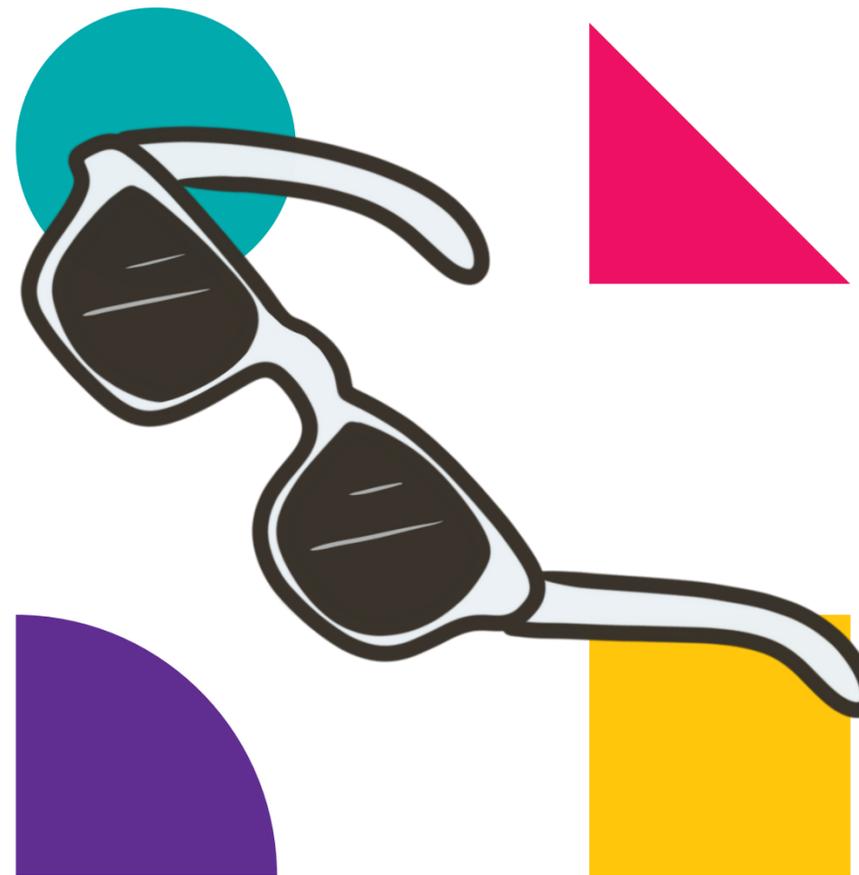

Simple. Intersectionality!

Intersectionality is an approach, a methodology, a point of view, a tool that helps to deconstruct reality and layers of discrimination.

Let's get together and explore the system we live in as human beings, as citizens, as youth workers, as trainers, as facilitators.

EXPLORE YOUR OWN
IDENTITY AND ITS RELATION TO YOUR WORK WITH YOUNG PEOPLE

MEET LIKE-MINDED PEOPLE AND
LEARN FROM THE EXPERIENCES
OF PEOPLE FROM DIFFERENT COUNTRIES

FIND A PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF THE CONCEPT OF INTERSECTIONALITY
IN YOUTH WORK

EXPLORE TOOLS AND METHODS TO DEAL WITH THE COMPLEXITY OF IDENTITIES, DISCRIMINATION, PRIVILEGE AND POWER

“ METHODOLOGY

“ OUR TEAM

ANIA AHEYEVA

Ania - Hi! I'm Ania, a freelance trainer and facilitator based in Erfurt, Germany. I was born in Belarus and worked there until 2021 to strengthen civil society. I am very interested in intersectionality as it helps me to see the bigger picture and the intersections of structural issues while working on empowering women, the LGBTQ+ community, rural youth and people with migrant backgrounds.

KINDA KHAZAAL

Hey! My name is Kinda, I am a British Lebanese currently living in Belgium. I started my journey in Lebanon, creating safe spaces and facilitating sessions for children and youngsters on different topics. Today in Belgium, I work with youngsters with a refugee background to overcome the difficulties they face as newcomers. The intersection of the different characteristics within my identity have helped understand myself better and be more open to the world.

MARCO MARINELLI

Marco Marinelli: Hi there! I'm Marco Marinelli from Italy, born in Brindisi and moved to Bologna. Master in Educational program design in disadvantaged context, circus trainer and artist fallen in love with Critical Pedagogy and the Theatre of the oppressed.

A quote that I really love (up to you to translate): "Ti insegnano a non splendere. E tu splendi, invece." (Pier Paolo Pasolini, 1922-1975)
