Please briefly present the partner organisation.	Foster inclusiveness, embrace diversity, facilitate youth participation, advocate for Lifelong Learning, establish trustworthy partnerships. At present, InoChange comprises two full-time staff members, one part-time staff member, and 22 part-time volunteers. Our target group includes young people aged 14-30, with a special focus on youth facing fewer opportunities. To achieve our goals, InoChange is dedicated to raising awareness among young people with fewer opportunities about various events at the national and European levels. We aim to support their active participation in civic life, foster active citizenship, and increase the activism of young people, making a valuable contribution to the development of civil society. To reach the desired aim, InoChange is also actively contributing to youth policy development, through being one of the honored 22 members of the "Youth Advisory Council" created under the Youth Agency of Georgia. InoChange is run by young people, former EVS volunteers, and former YiA project coordinators with rich experience of working in the frame of YiA/Erasmus+ Programme. To achieve its aim, InoChange uses methods of Non-formal and informal education and actively cooperates with local and international funds and NGOs.
What are the activities and experience of the organisation in the areas relevant for this application?	InoChange is experienced in organizing diverse activities—workshops, campaigns, outdoor camps, and more—covering topics like social inclusion, digital competencies, social entrepreneurship, cultural diversity, sports, healthy lifestyle and environmental education. Over six years, InoChange engaged in 45 European mobility projects, benefiting 420 local youth, fostering personal and professional development. InoChange has successfully cooperated with oversea partners and co-managed several international projects in mainland Europe and Overseases, such as Martinique, Guadeloupe, La Reunion, New Caledonia and Curacao as well as hosted youth exchanges in Georgia. InoChange has also sent 32 EVS/ESC volunteers for long-term projects and 4 volunteers for short-term projects in various European countries. • YE "EcoMission" (Barchem, Holland, Sept 2022): Environmental education with storytelling. • YE "Economy for Ecology" (Bailiff, Guadeloupe, Apr 2022): Focused on green entrepreneurship and innovative ideas. • YE "The Power behind the Gender" (Willemstad, Curacao, Mar 2022): Used digital tools for gender mainstreaming. • YE "Cheat Sheet for Healthy Shift" (Evora, Portugal, Feb 2022): ICT for health-promoting lifestyles among youngsters. • YE "Empathy Opens the Door" (Willemstad, Curacao, Dec 2021): Addressed racism, bullying, and intolerance...

What are the skills and expertise of key staff/persons involved in this application?	InoChange's key staff brings extensive experience in local and international projects, including director Tamar Tsertsvadze and project manager Salome Gvelesiani, who have a strong background as EVS/ESC volunteers and facilitating international youth projects in various European countries. Tamar, with a decade of youth work experience, excels in project coordination and management, with skills in teamwork, problem-solving, and communication. Salome, a skilled storyteller with a Tele-Radion Journalism background, brings 12 years of youth work experience, specializing in project cycle management. Both Tamar and Salome actively contribute to successful YiA/Erasmus+ projects, providing comprehensive support to participants, from pre-departure to final evaluations. InoChange's substantial network includes 2700 youth subscribers and a Volunteers Hub with 22 active members. The InoChange staff, comprised of creative, communicative, and motivated individuals, positions the organization as a reliable partner for any project.
