Antalya

Our province, Antalya, and the region it covers has hosted many civilizations from prehistory to the present day and is the province with the oldest cities in Turkey. It has become a city of civilizations, respectively: Lycians, Lydians, Pamphylians, Pergamons, Romans, Byzantines, Seljuk Dynasty, Ottomans and finally the Republic of Turkey.

Antalya is considered the "capital of tourism" in Turkey. The number of tourists increases, especially in the summer months. The city of Antalya has developed rapidly due to favorable climatic conditions and tourism activities and, in parallel, has become the fifth most populous city in Turkey today. Antalya is a tourism city in the southwest of the Mediterranean, hosting local and foreign tourists with its 640 km coastline, history, nature, sea, sun and beaches. The city is the most popular tourism city in Turkey. It is famous for its 228 blue flag beaches and cleanliness. Antalya has golden beaches, historical sites, waterfalls and caves worth seeing. Bergamot jam, tandoori kebab, stuffed zucchini flowers, meatballs and pumpkin dessert are among the traditional dishes. It is very easy to find accommodation for every budget in Antalya. In our opinion, everyone should definitely see Antalya. We would like to welcome you to this magnificent city.

Antalya hosted the 2015 G20 Summit and Expo 2016.
