Babaduri Idea Hub team decided to join Erasmus+! We might be beginners, but our leaders have organized youth activities before. We know how exchange projects work; we have previous experience as participants and it makes us think we can bring something awesome to Erasmus+. We're super excited to start this journey and learn as we go!

Briefly About Babaduri Idea Hub

Babaduri Idea Hub is a lively group of young individuals based in Tbilisi, Georgia, dedicated to making positive changes in their community. Fueled by diverse passions, this energetic hub brings together Nino, Giorgi, Ana, and more, united by a shared vision of creating a better local environment. From community cleanups to digital literacy projects, Babaduri Idea Hub thrives on innovation and collaboration, transforming ideas into impactful initiatives that leave a lasting mark on Tbilisi.

Objectives of Babaduri Idea Hub:

1. Empower the local community by initiating projects that enhance the well-being and cohesion of residents, fostering a sense of pride and connection.
2. Provide valuable opportunities for the youth to acquire diverse skills, including digital literacy, entrepreneurship, and soft skills, preparing them for personal and professional success.
3. Contribute to a greener and cleaner Tbilisi by organizing and participating in initiatives focused on environmental awareness, conservation, and sustainable practices.
4. Promote cultural exchange and understanding within Tbilisi by organizing events that celebrate diversity, encouraging dialogue, and breaking down cultural barriers among the community members.
5. Foster a culture of innovation and creativity, encouraging its members to brainstorm, develop, and implement new ideas that positively impact the local community and beyond.

Babaduri Idea Hub is grounded in a set of fundamental values that shape its identity and purpose. Upholding inclusivity, the hub ensures a welcoming environment for all, irrespective of differences. Collaboration is cherished, fostering a collective spirit where diverse ideas converge to address community challenges. With an emphasis on innovation, members are encouraged to think creatively and continuously improve approaches. Babaduri Idea Hub is deeply committed to community engagement, actively involving itself in understanding and meeting the needs of Tbilisi residents. Environmental stewardship is also paramount, with a focus on sustainable practices to contribute to a greener and healthier local environment. Together, these values form the foundation of Babaduri Idea Hub's mission to create positive change and enrich the community.

Activities and Experience

Through a range of impactful initiatives, the hub actively engages in community cleanups, digital literacy programs, environmental sustainability projects, and youth skill development programs. Additionally, Babaduri Idea Hub organizes diverse events, including cultural exchanges and community meetups, to celebrate diversity and strengthen social bonds within the local community. With an unwavering commitment to inclusivity, collaboration, and innovation, Babaduri Idea Hub leaves a lasting imprint on Tbilisi by transforming ideas into tangible projects that enrich the lives of its residents.

Here is the list of our recent initiatives:

Digital Youth 9.3 – an initiative aimed at empowering local youth with essential digital skills. Through engaging workshops and hands-on training, the project focused on equipping participants with the tools needed to navigate the digital landscape, fostering confidence and adaptability in the rapidly evolving technological era.

Green Man... Good Man - promoting sustainable practices and community goodwill. From tree-planting sessions to community clean-ups, the project aimed to contribute to a greener Tbilisi while instilling a sense of responsibility and pride among residents for creating a healthier environment.

Community Meetup Babaduri - project served as a catalyst for fostering community connections. Babaduri Idea Hub organized diverse events, from park picnics to art exhibitions, creating spaces where residents could come together, share ideas, and build meaningful relationships, thereby strengthening the social fabric of Tbilisi.

Youth Skills Up - through skill-building workshops and collaborative activities, the project aimed to empower young individuals in Tbilisi with a diverse set of practical skills, enhancing their employability and preparing them to overcome the challenges of the modern world.

These initiatives collectively showcase Babaduri Idea Hub's commitment to addressing various facets of community development, from digital literacy and environmental sustainability to fostering social connections and equipping youth with valuable skills for a brighter future in Tbilisi.

Babaduri Idea Hub is using fun and practical ways to help people learn and grow. We use methods like hands-on activities and workshops, where everyone gets involved and learns by doing. Simulations and role-plays make learning feel like real-life situations, making it more exciting. The hub also encourages people to learn from each other, creating a friendly and supportive community where everyone helps and shares. Babaduri Idea Hub understands how important technology is, so we use it to transmit competences like digital skills and online communication. Overall, their way of teaching is all about making learning enjoyable and useful for everyone in the Tbilisi community.

Skills and Expertise of Key Staff Involved

Ana Putkaradze - a founding member of Babaduri Idea Hub, brings expertise in the context of digital literacy. She holds Master's degree in Business Administration and Technologies and has 3 years of experience in the field of youth. With a passion for technology, Ana is adept at crafting engaging and informative workshops that empower the youth with essential digital skills. Her innovative approach ensures that participants not only grasp the basics but also navigate the ever-evolving digital landscape with confidence. Ana's commitment to bridging the digital divide in the community has been instrumental in the success of projects like "Digital Youth 9.3," reflecting her dedication to fostering a digitally savvy generation in Tbilisi.

Giorgi Akhvlediani stands out as the Green Man behind Babaduri Idea Hub's environmental initiatives. Armed with a green thumb and a passion for sustainability, Giorgi leads projects like "Green Man... Good Man" with enthusiasm. His expertise in organizing community clean-ups, tree-planting sessions, and environmental awareness campaigns has not only transformed neglected spaces but also instilled a sense of environmental responsibility among Tbilisi residents. Giorgi's commitment to creating a greener city showcases his role as a visionary force within the Babaduri Idea Hub. Giorgi is a bachelor of International Relations.

Other team members - our team is a diverse collective, each member contributing unique skills and expertise. From event coordination and cultural exchange initiatives to youth skill development programs, the team works collaboratively to bring ideas to life. Their combined strengths in non-formal learning methodologies, peer-to-peer engagement, and community building create a dynamic environment that fosters innovation and positive change within Tbilisi. Together, this dedicated team ensures that Babaduri Idea Hub continues to be a vibrant hub for community development and youth empowerment.

Target Groups

Babaduri Idea Hub is deeply committed to fostering positive change and community development among the diverse youth of Tbilisi, Georgia. Our inclusive target group encompasses a broad spectrum of young individuals, including volunteers, students, and active citizens, aged 17 to 30. Within this demographic, we place special emphasis on supporting and empowering those classified as "people with fewer opportunities." Our tailored programs aim to provide them with unique opportunities for personal growth, skill development, and active participation in community initiatives.

Our overarching goal extends beyond mere empowerment; we aspire to uplift their economic, social, cultural, and geographical circumstances. By offering a range of initiatives and projects, we aim to instill self-sufficiency and cultivate responsible citizenship within the dynamic fabric of Tbilisi. Through this holistic approach, Babaduri Idea Hub envisions a community where every individual, regardless of their background, can thrive and contribute positively to the vibrant mosaic of Tbilisi's society.

Selection Process

Babaduri Idea Hub employs a two-stage participant selection process. Open calls are disseminated in social media channels and during local meetups, encouraging candidates to complete application forms. Short-listed individuals undergo face-to-face interviews to identify high commitment levels. Selected participants receive thorough pre-engagement training, ensuring meaningful contributions to our community.

Dissemination

Babaduri Idea Hub's post-mobility activities extend beyond individual benefits, serving as a valuable resource for both participants and the wider youth and NGO communities. Through community showcases, digital storytelling campaigns, visual documentation, personal narratives, and alumni network involvement, we actively promote the advantages of Erasmus+ and facilitate knowledge exchange in youth development. By showcasing participants in public events, launching targeted digital campaigns, creating dynamic videos, publishing personal narratives, and engaging alumni networks, Babaduri Idea Hub plays a crucial role in fostering a culture of shared learning and growth, inspiring others to explore similar opportunities.
