C.BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Please briefly present the partner organization.

"Asociația Luna și Noi" is a non-governmental organization from Romania, focused on supporting young people from rural areas in central Dobrogea. Its mission is to provide opportunities for personal and educational development, contributing to improving the quality of life and access to non-formal education for those in disadvantaged communities.

The organization carries out various projects aimed primarily at enhancing social inclusion and reducing the disparities in opportunities between urban and rural areas. Through workshops, training courses, and community events, "Asociația Luna și Noi" promotes equal opportunities and supports the harmonious development of young people.

The organization's team consists of dedicated staff who contribute to the implementation of projects and the support of beneficiaries. By collaborating with institutions and sponsors, the association extends its impact, helping an increasing number of young people in central Dobrogea. "Asociația Luna și Noi" is an important voice for the rights and needs of young people in rural areas, bringing hope and better prospects to those it supports.

What are the activities and experience of the organization in the areas relevant for this application?

Our organization, "Asociația Luna și Noi," has extensive experience in working with young people, particularly in rural areas. We have successfully implemented a wide range of activities focused on non-formal education, aimed at fostering personal development, social inclusion, and active citizenship.

"Asociația Luna și Noi" organizes various educational and recreational activities and events for young people from rural areas in central Dobrogea, aiming to support their personal and educational development. Among its initiatives are:

- 1.Cogeaalac Youth Center: a safe and welcoming space for all young people in the community.
- 2.Educational workshops on topics such as financial education, health, career guidance, and civic education, designed to improve young people's life skills.
- 3.Training courses in various fields, including IT, foreign languages, crafts, and entrepreneurship, offering young people opportunities to learn new skills and expand their horizons.
- 4.Cultural and artistic activities, such as painting and creative workshops, talent competitions, encouraging creativity and active participation in the cultural life of the community.
- 5.Volunteer projects involving young people in community actions and events, developing their civic spirit and social responsibility.
- 6.Reading and debate clubs, promoting critical thinking and communication skills, providing young people with a space to express ideas and engage in dialogue.

Through these activities, "Asociația Luna și Noi" contributes to improving the quality of life for young people in rural areas, providing them with equal development opportunities and encouraging them to become active and engaged citizens.

Relevant projects:	Our organization has substantial experience in youth mobilities, particularly through the implementation of two ESC projects involving long-term international volunteering. • AvantGarden Project: This initiative engaged six international volunteers in developing a youth center and a peer-led non-formal education methodology. The methodology was designed to be inclusive, ensuring accessibility for neurodivergent young people, fostering broader participation. • Above and Beyond Project: Four international volunteers contributed to the development and implementation of recreational and educational activities in the Mobile Youth Center VanGO!. These activities promoted youth engagement in informal learning and community building. In both projects, our organization successfully hosted, selected, and coordinated the participants, ensuring smooth implementation and high-quality outcomes in youth development and mobility initiatives.
