1. Presentation of the organization.

Pacem International Youth Association has a strong track record in organizing and managing Erasmus+ youth exchanges and training courses. Our experience in this field spans several years, during which we have successfully facilitated numerous international youth exchanges and training initiatives. Our expertise lies in creating immersive educational experiences that transcend geographical boundaries and traditional classroom settings.

Miraçbey Fatih Mehmet Öztürkmen is the Founder and Chairman of the Executive Board of “Pacem Youth Association”. He worked in various municipalities in İstanbul as an English teacher and project manager. Within these municipal projects, he managed United Nations initiatives dedicated to children with disabilities and the offspring of economically disadvantaged families, with the team that he created. In addition, he holds an IELTS Academic Proficiency C1 Level Certification obtained in 2020. As a double major student at İstanbul University, pursuing degrees in econometrics and political science and international relations, He's also the Vice President of “Community of Economics and Econometrics Students”. Furthermore, he's managed and facilitated Erasmus+ projects several times throughout the past two years. Currently, he's an intern in the Governorship of İstanbul, further advancing his dedication to international affairs and public service.

Hamza Erfidan is currently pursuing his education in the Communication Department at Galatasaray University and is also enrolled in a Double Degree Program at the University of Bordeaux. While he took language courses in various institutes and universities in Jordan, Tunisia, South Africa, and Sudan, he also attended summer courses as a guest student at the International University of Africa. Among his professional experiences, he participated as a contributor, coordinator, and interpreter in humanitarian aid projects in Sudan, Senegal, and Libya organized by the TIKA Presidency. In addition to his role as a project writer and coordinator in numerous international projects in İstanbul. In his spare time, he participates in the Scientific Thought Community and Classical Turkish Music Club he founded at Galatasaray University and is involved in mountaineering with the Scout Leadership and Mountaineering Federation. He can speak Arabic, French and English fluently.

Emre Avcı is a 4th year Industrial Engineering student of the Uludağ University. He leads an active social life in the international community of his city, and mentored several exchange students through the local Erasmus organization. Nevertheless, he took part in several Erasmus+ Youth Exchange projects and Training Courses abroad both in the role of participant and as a team leader. He is enthusiastic about intercultural experiences and helping people.

Scope of work

2. What are the activities and experience of your organization relevant for this project proposal?

What are the skills and/or expertise of key persons who will be involved in this project?

Pacem International Youth Association is a non-governmental organization (NGO) dedicated to organizing and managing Erasmus+ youth exchanges and training courses. Our organization operates on a global scale, engaging with young people from diverse backgrounds and cultures. We have a dynamic team of both paid and unpaid staff members who are passionate about empowering youth and creating positive change in society. Our areas of activity primarily revolve around international youth exchanges, training programs, and capacity-building initiatives. We have a dedicated team of professionals, including project managers, educators, youth workers, and trainers, who work collaboratively to design, implement, and evaluate our programs. The number of individuals who benefit from our organization's activities varies depending on the specific projects we undertake, but it typically ranges from dozens to hundreds of young participants per project. In addition to our direct engagement with youth, we also collaborate with teachers, educators, and mentors who play a vital role in the success of our programs. Our organization is committed to promoting inclusive and holistic youth development, with a focus on intercultural understanding, leadership, and social impact.

3. Dissemination and exploitation.

Please give an overview of the capacity of your organisation to disseminate project results.

Pacem International Youth Association is well-equipped to disseminate project results effectively. We have an established online presence, including a website and active social media channels, which we use to share project updates, outcomes, and success stories. Additionally, our organization maintains strong partnerships with local and international youth-focused organizations, educational institutions, and government agencies. These partnerships enable us to reach a broad and diverse audience and maximize the impact of our dissemination efforts. We also have experience in organizing events, workshops, and conferences related to youth development and Erasmus+ projects. These events serve as platforms for sharing project results with a wide range of stakeholders, including young participants.
