PERSONAL PROFILE

A motivated and committed young Algerian, shaped by one of the most demanding human contexts in the world. I grew up in the Sahrawi refugee camps of Tindouf, where solidarity is not an abstract value but a way of life. I have an exceptional capacity for adaptation, deep intercultural sensitivity and a genuine determination to contribute to the common good in diverse environments.

EXPERIENCE

Community support in a humanitarian context

Tindouf Refugee Camps, Algeria · 2015 – 2021

Actively supported vulnerable families through resource distribution, community event coordination and informal youth activities. Gained deep insight into collective resilience and the critical role of teamwork in crisis settings.

Informal education & youth facilitation

Independent volunteer · 2019 – 2022

Delivered educational reinforcement sessions and literacy activities for children and teenagers, fostering discipline, respect and teamwork in a resource-limited environment.

EDUCATION

General basic education

Completed · Algeria

Foundation studies with emphasis on humanities, communication and social engagement.

Self-taught Spanish

2020 – present

Advanced level (B2) achieved independently; fluent in everyday and professional communication.

OBJECTIVE

To participate in a European Solidarity Corps project and contribute actively to the host community, while developing new personal and professional skills in a diverse European environment. I aim to bring back knowledge and inspiration that will help me advance community work and social inclusion in Algeria.
