ARTERNATIVAS EUROPE

Institutional Profile

Independent Contemporary Art Platform

Based in Southern Spain

Who We Are

ARTERNATIVAS is an independent contemporary art platform based in Conil de la Frontera, Cádiz, Spain.

Founded under the philosophy “Art without filters. Artists without intermediaries”, ARTERNATIVAS was created to support independent artists through direct visibility, fair access to collectors and international cultural opportunities outside traditional elitist art systems.

The platform combines digital infrastructure, cultural programming and international collaboration to create new opportunities for emerging and independent contemporary artists.

Mission

Our mission is to democratise access to contemporary art by reducing barriers between artists, audiences and collectors.

We work to:

- support emerging artists
- promote fair cultural visibility
- encourage artistic mobility
- create international cultural connections
- develop accessible contemporary art ecosystems

What We Do

Digital Contemporary Art Platform

ARTERNATIVAS operates a digital platform where independent artists can present and sell their work directly without traditional gallery intermediaries.

FAIA — Independent Art Fair of Andalusia

FAIA is an independent contemporary art fair focused on visibility, accessibility and cultural exchange for emerging artists and alternative artistic practices.

International Collaboration

We aim to create collaborations with cultural organisations, independent art spaces, festivals, residencies and creative institutions across Europe, the Mediterranean region and Latin America.

Cultural Mobility

ARTERNATIVAS supports opportunities for artistic exchange, mobility and international visibility through collaborative cultural initiatives and future European cooperation projects.

Our Vision

We believe contemporary art should be:

- accessible
- international
- independent

- socially connected
- culturally diverse

Our long-term vision is to develop a sustainable international network connecting artists, cultural organisations and independent creative communities across Europe and beyond.
