

European Partnership Profile 2026

A concise profile for Erasmus+, CERV and other European cooperation opportunities

CODENAF – Turning European cooperation into real opportunities for people and communities.

Who we are

CODENAF (Cooperation and Development with North Africa) is a Spanish non-profit organisation founded in 1996. With 30 years of experience, CODENAF works at the intersection of social inclusion, intercultural education, youth empowerment, employability and international cooperation. Founded through collaboration between people of migrant and Andalusian backgrounds, the organisation combines community trust, practical intervention experience and a strong commitment to equal opportunities and social cohesion.

30 years of social action and community work	2,907 people supported in 2025	65 nationalities engaged through our services and programmes
Youth, education and inclusion strong experience in direct intervention	Community-based approach work with schools, families, civil society and public institutions	Euro-Mediterranean perspective experience connected to North Africa and intercultural cooperation

Core expertise

- Inclusion & Diversity: engagement of migrant communities, young people with fewer opportunities and underrepresented groups.
- Intercultural Education & Non-formal Learning: educational mediation, anti-discrimination activities and participatory learning processes.
- Youth Empowerment & Active Citizenship: participation, autonomy, life skills and meaningful involvement of young people.
- Employability & Digital Inclusion: training, employability pathways, digital skills and socio-labour inclusion.
- Community Development & Cooperation: local partnerships, stakeholder coordination and Euro-Mediterranean collaboration.

What we can contribute to European projects

- Participant outreach and engagement, especially with communities facing barriers to participation.
- Needs assessments, field-based evidence and local community consultation.
- Implementation of local pilot activities, workshops and non-formal learning sessions.

- Training and capacity-building for youth workers, educators, volunteers and social professionals.
- Intercultural mediation and cooperation with schools, public authorities and civil society actors.
- Dissemination, local stakeholder engagement and support to evaluation and impact reporting.

Priority cooperation interests

Erasmus+: Youth Exchanges (KA152), Youth Workers Mobility (KA153), Youth Participation Activities (KA154), Small-scale Partnerships (KA210) and Cooperation Partnerships (KA220).

Other relevant programmes: CERV and other European initiatives focused on inclusion, human rights, intercultural dialogue, social cohesion and community participation.

Partnership interest

CODENAF welcomes collaboration with NGOs, youth organisations, educational institutions, universities, public authorities and other European partners seeking a reliable, experienced and proactive organisation able to contribute to project design, implementation and long-term impact.

Website: www.codenaf.org