About the Project:

“Action For Youth And Volunteerism” is an EVS project designed for six (6) months and it will be implemented in Limassol, the second largest town in Cyprus. This project will host up to four (4) volunteers from four (4) different EU countries.

Aims of the project:

The project aims to involve young volunteers in the activities of our youth centre. This involvement will be done by giving space to volunteers to organize different leisure time activities for young people, help them learn, obtain knowledge, gain skills and become more active citizens. Furthermore, the volunteers will get involved with all the on-going actions of our youth centre.

The participants will have the chance to enrich their knowledge, develop new skills, get involved with the local society, express themselves and organize or lead to actions developed by the organization or even themselves. The volunteers will also be able to participate to different kind of projects / actions carried out by the hosting organization, such as educational visits, fairs, donations, youth mobility programmes and much more.

All the above will be carried out through non formal and informal learning via the supervision and the guidance of our professional staff and team.
