

FOSTERING POLITICAL LIFE IN JORDAN

Al-Hayat Center is a Jordanian independent, non-governmental and non-profit organization. Established in 2006 by the efforts of a group of young Jordanian civil activists. Al-Hayat Center aims at enhancing political life in Jordan within the frame of democratic principles, human rights and the rule of law, through raising public awareness on the values of civil society based on justice, equality, freedom, participation and acceptance.

Open Discussions with Decision makers & human Right education

LOCAL OUTREACH

Al-Hayat Center believes that in order to achieve sustainable development; all societal and political components should engage in a constructive crystal of projects to fairly address the various developmental needs of each component. Therefore, Al-Hayat center has been reaching out to rural areas, Badia, refugee camps and city centers, with its gender-balanced activities to maximize the efficiency of public engagement.

REGIONAL OUTREACH

Forum to set out young Jordanians priorities

AL-HAYAT IS MEMBER IN THE GLOBAL NETWORK OF DOMESTIC ELECTION MONITORS

Al-Hayat Center has participated in drafting the Declaration of Global Principles for Nonpartisan Election Observation and Monitoring by Citizen Organizations.

Descending from Al-Hayat's deep commitment towards regional development and global citizenship values, Al-Hayat Center has a wild outreach on both regional and international levels, where Al-Hayat has significant contributions in building the capacities of CSOs in monitoring elections, enhancing political development, advocating for human rights and supporting democratic transitions in several Arab countries including -but not limited to- Libya, Algeria, Tunisia, Sudan, Morocco, Yemen, the West Bank and Egypt.

RASED E-DAY OPERATION ROOM 2013

MUSHARAKAH: Enhance the public participation among the local community

RASED: Monitoring the Elections and the Performance of the Elected Councils

DEFAA: Support to the Young political Activists and the Young Human Right Defenders in Jordan.

- Building the Capacity of Young Jordanians Human Right Defenders (YJHRDs) at Jordanians' universities, funded by the Netherlands Embassy.
- Monitoring the Performance 17th Jordanians Parliament, Funded by NDI & Canadian Embassy.
- "Affecting and Enhancing Grassroots Participation in the Political Reform Process in Jordan: MUSHARAKA", funded by EUD.
- "Enhancing the Course of Decentralization and Development of Local Self-Governance in Jordan", Funded by NDI.

SMALL BUSINESS IN THE
POVERTY POCKETS -
KUFRAJJA 2010

- Monitoring 2013 Municipal Elections: RASED, funded by NDI 2013.
- Advocating against the Tribal Evacuation Custom; everyone has the right to freedom of movement and residence within the borders of each state; JALWAH, funded by the Civil Society Program (CSP) 2012-2013.
- Monitoring 2013 Parliamentary Elections: RASED, funded by NDI, UK Embassy, and Canadian Embassy.
- Engaging Youth in Municipality Politics: The Irbid Youth Municipality Council (IYMC) Initiative, October 2011 - September 2012, funded by the Foundation for the Future.
- Advocating for Compliance with Article 72: Day Care Centers in Jordanian Workforces February 2012, funded by Vital Voices.
- Promoting Entrepreneurship in Poverty Pockets in Jordan - Municipality of Kufranjah, Funded by the EUD. January 2010- March, 2012.
- Building University Students' Council Members Democratic Capacity 2009 - 2010, funded by the MOPIC - EUD and the Netherlands Embassy.
- The Importance of Youth Inclusion in Electoral Programs: AHAMIEH II Project 2010, Funded by NDI
- The 2010 Jordanian Election Observation: Al-Rased II project 2010, Funded by NDI.
- Promoting Jordanian Women Skills in Small Projects and Economic Encouragement: Women Entrepreneurs. 2009 - 2010, Funded by the CIDA.
- The Third Arab Youth Meeting in Jordan and Palestine 2012, The Second Arab Youth Meeting in Jordan and Palestine 2011.
- The First Arab Youth Meeting in Jordan and Palestine 2010.
- The international Seminar "the Role of CSOs in defending Youth Rights and Liberties, Funded by EUROMED.