Celebration of the International day of Peace 21 September 2013

That year MasterPeace had its birth for the first time in Morocco with a number of ambitious young people full of energy just waiting to hatch.

After the launch of the creation of our club in Marrakech on 14/09/2013, our second action was the celebration of the International Day of Peace. The assistants were 40 young and the event is organized in collaboration with Youth Center who provided the local and contributed to the animation.

Our team of 13 people was there to share their beliefs theme of peace. "Fight against discrimination and promote diversity" was our way of celebrating the IDP. To make more concrete our ideas and goals discussed during the presentation MasterPeace Morocco and the history of IDNs, we opted for a set of activities that any assistant is invited to attend, also work as a team to express their views and defend them while implementing its ability to manage conflict when multiple solutions or more differences start around the same issue.

Our program has made its closing with a party where the division was still present : " Delivering the talent that I hold ! , " As such each assistant this time there is invited to make us discover his artistic and innovative appearance, a good way to combine the diversity !
