Local context

Nabeul (Arabic: نابول, Tunisian pronunciation: [ˈnɛːbɪl]; French: [naˈbøʎ]) is a coastal town in northeastern Tunisia, on the south coast near to the Cap Bon peninsula. It is located at around 36°27'N 10°44'E and is the capital of the Nabeul Governorate. The city has a population of 56,387 (2004 census).

Nabeul was founded in the 5th century BC by the Greeks of Cyrene, serving as a trade port. Its name is an Arabised form of the Greek Neapolis 'new city' (an etymology it shares with Naples, Neapoli, and Nablus).

It is a popular tourist destination and the main centre of the Tunisian pottery industry.

Nabeul is a small city of just about 60,000 people (probably a few thousand less) and is a place that many visitors will find themselves during a visit to Tunisia. Nabeul is also the main administrative centre of the governorate of Nabeul and an area that includes a large piece of the Cap Bon region and the major tourist area of Hammamet, which has increasingly become more famous than Nabeul itself.

when you drive to Nabeul from Hammamet, you can see the numerous travel agencies and hotels on the road and this tells you that this is one of the main administrative centres for tourism in Tunisia, although the concentration of hotels and restaurants reduces as you get to Nabeul itself as this is very much a working town as well as a touristic one.

Participants will be able to improve their youth work methods

The volunteers will be living in Dar Chabenne El Fehri and their work will be mainly based in the office of (Euro-med eve) which is located in Rue Ibn Roched Dar Chabenne El Fehri, 05 min from the Nabeul city center by bus (and around 10-15 min walking distance) but located in a convenient range to the volunteers' apartment, less than 20 min walking.

The volunteer will be lodged in an apartment shared by the volunteers working in the same project. The volunteers will have their own room during the hole periods and will share the facilities (kitchen, showers, bathroom) with the other volunteers.
