

Play Your Cards Right – Summer Challenge

Call for partners

A three-phase training course supported by the Erasmus+ programme. The training course is organized by a non-formal group Czekobanda. The trainers are instructors of Outward Bound Czech Republic.

Topic

- Effective methods in outdoor learning and experiential education for youth workers.
- Based on our experience from winter training we decided to develop our idea further. The training will be divided in three parts:

- I. Part A – Training course: 1st May to 10th May 2015
- II. Part B – Put in Action: between May and August 2015
- III. Part C – Epilogue: 27th -30th August 2015

I. Part A - Training course

During the full 8 days of the training course, you will:

- › get first hand experience with the programmes, games and activities used in experiential learning
- › understand the theory behind
- › share experience and good practices from participants' youth work
- › try out the role of an instructor leading the activity for other participants
- › plan and develop your own project based on the experiential learning methodology in participants' home country
- › get feedback on your plans

II. Part B – Put in Action

Between May and August you will realize your project planned during the training course back in your home country.

III. Part C – Epilogue

During the Epilogue, you will:

- › share your summer project experience
- › evaluate your project and your role in it
- › share best practises
- › get ideas for your future projects
- › strengthen your leadership skills and creativity

Place: Beautiful landscape, Czech Republic
