

Training course
Social entrepreneurship trainers

Zagreb – Croatia
20. – 26. 09. 2015.

CALL FOR PARTNERS

General Information

"Entrepreneurship is not just about a new company and job creation. Specifically social entrepreneurship is also about improving humankind". A social enterprise can maximize improvements in human and environmental well-being.

The core aim of this project is to use non-formal methods to inspire the next generation of entrepreneurs through unique, integrated instruction to identify the challenges of our time and develop solutions and models for sustainable social organizations.

The objectives

- To inspire the next generation of social entrepreneurs
- To identify the challenges of our time and develop solutions and models for sustainable social organizations.
- Familiarize with the new trend called social business
- Acquire skills to build a social business.
- To promote and develop social innovative ideas and share good practices.
- To empower job seekers to become self employed.
- To develop new contacts to create strong partnerships for future projects on social entrepreneurship.

Participants

It is planned that project will be realized participation of 10 organizations from 10 different countries. There will be 2 participants from each organization. The participants should be older than 18 years old and youth workers who works with volunteers in their organizations.

How?

All the activities in the project will be realized by trainers and facilitators. The activities will be realized with non formal ways. Interactive group works will be used during the sessions. The participants will be the main actors of their learning process.

Languages

The project will be realized in English.

Financial condition

We will cover accommodation, meals and activity costs during project period and travel costs to the maximum amount established by km in guide

http://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/tools/distance_en.htm

Where and when?

Zagreb, Croatia. The project will be realized between 20-26 of September 2015.