

CALL FOR PARTNERS

ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME – KEY ACTION 1 – YOUTH EXCHANGE

Dear Friends,

Our organisation Per Eempio is looking for partners for a Youth Exchange on discrimination, stereotypes and prejudices.

Our organization is a non-profit organisation aiming at cultural, social, ethical, and economic development through the promotion of active participation of people and the civic society.

The mission of Per Eempio is to reinforce social cohesion in the targeted communities, evoking constructive processes for local as well as for international community development. The activities of the organisation particularly aim at empowering individuals and groups at risk of social exclusion by contributing to the development and improvement of their skills, knowledge and competences.

We aim to gather 30 participants from 5 Programme Countries for a 7 day long youth exchange.

Date and venue

The activity will take place in Palermo, Italy.

Date: most likely in October 2015.

Objectives:

- to foster intercultural dialogue and fight stereotypes and prejudices as means to contribute to a more diverse and inclusive society
- to educate about human rights and to promote active European citizenship
- to learn new methods of conflict prevention and conflict resolution
- to promote non-formal educational methods through peer-learning
- to gain knowledge on Erasmus+ Programme

Number and profile of participants

We are looking for partners from Austria, France, Estonia and Hungary.

From each country we plan to involve 5 participants+1 youth leader where half of the group should be young people with fewer opportunities and representatives of minorities in their country. The participants should be aged between 16 and 20 (except the youth leader – there is only a minimum age limit of 18). Together with the organisations we will aim to ensure gender balance.
