

Erasmus+

"Add the change to your actions!"

A training course in Klimontów, Poland

September 2015

Program draft:

Day 1:

Arrival and integration:

Day 2:

Teambuilding

Day 3:

The importance of the analysis in building the strategy for change:

- Diagnostic tools –
- Soft analysis in diagnosis

Day 4:

Preparing diagnostic tools by the participants in groups

Simulation "Phase 1"

The participants' task is to carry out diagnosis in a youth group with the use of the pre-prepared tools. The workshop will be held in a high school.

Day 5:

Analysing the diagnosis + choosing one problem to solve and introducing a positive change.

Two-phase discussion: panel discussion and debate on the idea of social change as one of the most important elements of society development.

Day 6:

Non-formal education as an element of planned introduction of change in the local society. Good practices presentation. Workshop on the importance of non-formal education.

Day 7:

Trip to Krakow – visiting two initiatives – urban and rural that work for the social change in the local environment.

Day 8:

Building the tools for change:

Two-phase workshop:

1 – building a symbolic machine for social change;

2- group work on workshop scenarios;

Day 9

Simulation "Phase 2"

Workshop for change – each group will carry out a 90-minutes workshop for a group of students from the local high school

Day 10

Preserving the change – how to overcome frustration and burnout

Day 11

The training evaluation. Working on the results and certificates