SPORT IS THE PATH

“Sport is the path” is a Training Course (TC) prepared by Youthfully Yours SR, which involve 30 youth workers/leaders and potential entrepreneurs, interested in Non Formal Education through sport.

Planned activities will be based on Non Formal Education tools as a medium for developing entrepreneurial skills and values.

Europe is facing a high number of unemployed young people. Youth workers and youth leaders play an important role in supporting young people and they should, in our eyes, also play a vital role in supporting young people's reflection on their personal development. Youth entrepreneurship in today's Europe is a key issue for a greater economic development and for a deeper crises solution.

The Aims of the Training course are to stimulate entrepreneurial thinking and employability in sport for young people, to exchange opinions about the youth unemployment and entrepreneurship in different European countries, to discuss how non-formal education can positively influence better youth employability and to train participants to employ useful instruments and knowledge to promote entrepreneurship through sport;

Beside this, will TC promote cooperation among EU member countries and develop sustainable network among organizations in the field of youth and sport.

PARTICIPANTS:

30 youth/social workers and potential entrepreneurs aged 18+ from 9 countries, preferably interested in sport and youth employability issue.
