

Youth promotes Justice in Europe

October 2016

Bratislava, Slovakia

Justice and equality are the most important fundamental values of society. The European union is built on respect for fundamental values, for the rule of law and for democracy. An effective functioning of the European Union requires effective justice systems in all European states. Effective justice is necessary for keeping these values and for strengthening of mutual trust.

The main goals are to show concepts and definitions of justice as a human fundamental right, importance and strengthening of social justice, values of justice systems and opportunities to improve confidence of citizens. Activities are based on non-formal learning methods such as simulations of justice process, role plays, street activities and interviews, discussions, presentations, open space methods, brainstormings, excursions.

Participants:

There will be a total of 40 young people who will participate in this youth exchange. We will choose participants with fewer opportunities and keep gender balance. Each country will send 5 participants (2 boys, 2 girls, 1 leader will be preferable) between the age of 18 and 30, there will be no age limit for the leader. Participants interested in the project will be invited to show their interest by any kind of presentation regarding their personal meaning of justice.

Partners:

There will be included 8 countries - Slovakia, Italy, Czech republic, Turkey, France, Belgium, Norway and Denmark. We need partners to send us an email with the PIF. If you are selected, we will send you mandate to sign. Please pay attention to profile of participants, we kindly ask you to follow our requests about their selection.
