

CHALLENGE

CHALLENGE! is a training course that consists of addressing the challenge that education truly is a holistic concept, where people are the protagonists. This requires that academic education, the non-formal one and informal also, join efforts against the major problems that society deals with.

Segregation, the different forms of alienating hedonism, diversity management, and new urban challenges are some of the answers that education has to offer right now everywhere in the world. This need requires that the various dimensions of education (formal, non-formal and the informal) complement each other in a single response to these challenges.

CHALLENGE!Tackling the challenges offering strategies of team work between the different levels of education, starting this time paradigm and foundation of non-formal education, and offering its resources and methodology.

InCHALLENGEwe will work the transfer through:

- workshops
- interactives exhibitions with experts,
- debates,
- Exchange of good practices
- and above all fieldwork in primary schools, secondary schools, universities, and other means of non-formal education as multimedia, participants will increase their personal skills and resources to meet the new social challenges to education in response.

CHALLENGEwill be held in the city and educational community of Badalona, during October 2017.

We thought that CHALLENGE can be also an exchange of good practice, that's why we request the participating organizations and their candidates to contribute to the course contents'. For that we would like to know:
