B.I.G. in Bristol

We are thrilled to have some of Bristol's most important and exciting companies on board as our Host companies, offering Internships to our bright, young candidates for up to 6 months. We thank you all for your continued partnerships and welcome more and more to the project, as word spreads about the benefits of having a B.I.G. Intern.

What the Bristol businesses say...

We often hear:

"Our Intern was an asset to the team and fitted right in"

"When can we have another Intern"

"Please can we keep her / him?!"

"Pattersons have been delighted to host students from B.I.G. The students come to us with good English skills and are able to fit into our busy departments well. Working with our team members gives them a good opportunity to see company life in Bristol. The students enjoy working in our showroom, helping customers – it certainly gives us all the opportunity to learn vocabulary both ways."

B.I.G. Accommodation

What's it like working with B.I.G.?

B.I.G. recommends staying with an English speaking Host for the full 'immersion experience'. Culturally and socially, Homestay accommodation can have huge benefits. Our Host accommodation is always of a good standard with all mod cons. On a half board basis, Homestay meals will include all breakfasts and evening meals. We try to place candidates with Hosts as near as possible to their Internship company.

Homestay in Bristol

We have an ever-growing network of trusted Hosts who welcome our Interns into their homes and enjoy telling them about Bristol and British life. We thank you all for being part of B.I.G. and look forward to meeting more new Hosts who offer our candidates such lovely homes-from-home.

Here's what the Homestay Hosts say...

"It's really interesting inviting people from different countries and cultures into my home. I love talking to them over dinner and telling them about all the things to see and do in Bristol."

"Your Interns are always so polite and clean – we miss them! They will always be welcome to come back and visit us."

"B.I.G. Interns are always wonderful guests to welcome into my home. They are polite, young professionals who fit in like one of the family. Our latest Intern walked the dog, cut the grass and washed the dishes – what a star!"

NOTE: Whilst B.I.G. cannot guarantee all Interns are like this one, we are very proud of the high calibre of candidates we bring to Bristol.
