What is “Practice, learn, step up!”?

„Practice, learn, step up!” aims to involve 9 EVS participants in non-formal education activities together with high-school students, over a 10-month period.

The main aim of our project is to encourage the self-discovery, personal and professional development of youth in an international environment, with the help of non-formal education. We aim to involve EVS volunteers in our successful program GROW and in other non-formal education programs for high-school students developed by our organisation in Bucharest, Romania.

What will you do?

The activities designed for EVS volunteers will involve:

- Helping in the preparation, implementation and evaluation of non-formal education programs for youth like GROW - <http://www.growedu.ro/>
- Being trained by our educational specialists to develop public speaking and training skills, in order to facilitate non-formal education sessions
- Preparing and delivering non-formal education sessions for high-school students, on various topics related to: personal values, communication abilities, self-efficiency, entrepreneurship, proactivity, leadership, career orientation
- Organising various projects and events (cultural, educational, charitable) together with the high-school students
- A diversified program of informal activities with the students and with local volunteers

What we offer?

Our EVS project offers volunteers the chance to develop numerous skills and abilities related to:

- Training, public speaking, self-presentation, verbal and non-verbal expressiveness, team-work
- Project management, event management, entrepreneurship, proactivity, planning and self-organising
- English language and digital skills

What are we looking for?

We are looking for EVS volunteers aged 18 to 30, who:

- Have a good knowledge of English
- Are interested in education and in working with high-school students
- Are willing to learn about non-formal educational methods and an innovative non-formal education curriculum
- Are highly motivated to grow personally and professionally and to have a positive impact in society

Who are we?

Școala de Valori

- Romanian NGO
- Doing non-formal education for teens and youth in Romania
- 7 years of experience working with teens
- Developed programs for more than 30.000 youth in Romania
- We remove the constraints of formal learning and encourage our students to learn new things by having fun.

WHY TEENS / YOUTH?

Millennials make up the largest percentage of our population today, yet have seen some of the lowest labor force participation growth and highest unemployment out of all age groups since the turn of the century.

1/4 Romanian students do not have a job after finishing university.

85% of jobs that will exist in 2030 haven't been invented yet. This is why it is important to be ready for a lifetime of skills training and retraining, in real time.

67% of the jobs existing on the Romanian labor market don't have a correspondent major in University studies.

Săpânța village boasts the unique 'Merry Cemetery', famous for the colourfully painted wooden crosses that adorn the tombstones in the village's graveyard. Shown in art exhibitions across Europe, the crosses attract coachloads of visitors who marvel at the gentle humour of the epitaphs and the human warmth that created them.

Some castles perch on mountains, others skulk in mist-shrouded hills, but Hunedoara's juts out from an industrial jungle. Despite being surrounded by steel mills, Corvin Castle is Transylvania's most spellbinding fortress. You'll be thunderstruck the moment you walk over the drawbridge, with pointed turrets rising above, into the stone courtyard.

Slicing through the forbidding Făgăraș Mountains, the Transfăgărașan Rd offers some of Transylvania's most memorable views. You're sure to have an iron grip on the steering wheel as you navigate its sharp bends.

Access points from the north – Făgăraș and Victoria – are situated outside the mountains and lack any sort of mountain-air quaintness. Still, the monumental citadel in Făgăraș town and Șinca Veche's mysterious cave shrine warrant driving beyond the Transfăgărașan Rd.

Bucharest gets a bad rap, but in fact it's dynamic, energetic and fun. It's where still-unreconstructed communism meets unbridled capitalism; where the soporific forces of the EU meet the passions of the Balkans. While much of the centre is modern and garish, you'll find splendid 17th- and 18th-century Orthodox churches and graceful art nouveau villas tucked away in quiet corners.

Communism changed the face of the city forever, and nowhere is this more evident than at the gargantuan Palace of Parliament, the craziest and crassest tribute to dictatorial megalomania you'll probably ever see.
