Organization Local Activities

The group has won the third place in the pioneer youth leadership competition organized by Save the Children (Jordan) Organization and the Canada Fund for Local Initiative.

These two organizations have proved helping the group by doing a workshop to develop the youths' abilities and their important role in the society. Over 300 participants joined this project from all around Jordan such as Amman, Irbid, Karak, Ma'an, Madaba, Al Safawi, and Al Zarqa.

The group participation held the name Community Service by Youth which included two main projects to include the youth in the society in two main domains the environment and the culture which dominated two main special groups the remote community youth and the deaf youth. The project enjoyed the high participation of girls and the youths' role in taking decision, the ability to express their own opinions with no restrictions. Another privilege of this project was the good documentation where notes were taken all the time during the all the activities so that the results and the whole experience will be used as a source for some other projects to be.

The forty youth participants from all around the Kingdom performed the exceptional abilities which they learned during many sessions from the projects program.
